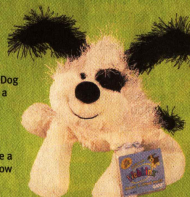
SURPRISE RETIREMENTS

Many of you who love to collect Webkinz were probably very surprised to hear that Ganz decided to retire two very recent releases: the Black and White Cheeky Dog and the Rhino. For those of you who were lucky enough to get one of each for your collection, good for you!



Here's an interesting question though: as these two newly retired Webkinz start to disappear from store shelves, will they become as scarce as the original Cheeky Dog and Cheeky Cat? The original Cheeky Dog was probably sitting on store shelves a lot longer than the Black and White Cheeky Dog. In the case of the Rhino, this one was probably the fastest retirement we've ever seen. So, if you have the chance to get one it might be a good idea because you never know how popular and valuable they could become one day.

Another batch of retirements also took place recently with the brand new Beanie Babies 2.0. The five newly retired Beanies 2.0 are: Fluffball, Rascal, Pico, Purry and Jumps. Several of these have only been out a few months. You can now see the entire collection of Beanies 2.0 including all of the retired ones inside this issue (p. 46). Check them out and let us know which one is your favorite.

With summer upon us and the heat causing both you and your Webkinz to run for cooler shelter, don't you think that a tasty meal would make them happy to be indoors? If you don't know the correct ingredients though, you'll just end up with a bowl of gunk. Eww! Yeah, it's not the nicest looking food and just imagine what your pet must think of it too. Luckily, we have a huge feature inside this issue that shows the first 50 of the Top 100 Webkinz Recipes of all time. We'll tell you which ingredients to mix together for the most delicious dishes. All of your pets will thank you and show you their appreciation with a great big smile.

Plus, don't forget to enter our Webkinz Contest for a chance to win a retired Unicorn. This time we're giving away five of them!

Have a fun summer!

Fun Facts

The Hippo
(a.k.a. Hippopotamus)

Hippos thrive in the rivers, swamps and other protected areas of Africa. Their diet consists of all types of vegetation in and near bodies of water. They can grow to be 13 feet long, up to five feet tall and weight up to three and a half tons. Their bodies are plump and bulky with short legs and webbed toes which help them glide through the water. Their legs are also very strong and can help them climb up steep areas. Never get too close to a hippo because they are also one of the more aggressive animals on the planet. The name hippo is Greek and means horse. These animals used to be called river horses.

$500 FOR A LIL'KINZ?

Back in May, Ganz mistakenly sent out a new Lil'Kinz Lamb to several retailers around the country. The Lil'Kinz Lamb was never mentioned, shown or promoted to anyone. About a dozen of them showed up recently on eBay and the bids for them went crazy! The Lamb was selling anywhere between $300 and $500 each. There's no word on when this Lil'Kinz pet will be released. Keep reading future issues of Plushie Pals for more details.

TOP 100 WEBKINZ RECIPES (PART 1)

Here are the secret ingredients to creating the perfect meals for your Webkinz pets

By Caitlin McInnis

#1- Slimescraper

If New York City was made of food, you would see this amazing Slimescraper! Well, don't worry. Your Webkinz can still enjoy this architecture for dinner! Just put oatmeal, chocolate pudding, and baked beans into a stove. All that's left is to serve, eat, and enjoy!

#2- Fried Callistorm

It's raining, it's pouring, sprinkles? This sweet treat could be on your Webkinz' plate for breakfast, lunch, or dinner! Or, if you can't wait that long, have it for a snack! Just buy some eggs, pancakes, and pizza, and cook them all up in a stove.

#3- Turretango Twist

The only way to climb this edible tower is to climb the french fry vines! Just cook cake, french fries, and a salad in a stove, and you and your Webkinz can live happily ever after!

#4- Fire and Water Sandwich

What's hot and cold at the same time, but still tastes great? A Fire and Water Sandwich, of course! Bread, watermelon, and dragon fruit in a sandwich maker will create this delicious sandwich.

#5- Hole In One

As you know, it's extremely rude to play with your food. The Hole in One recipe is an exception though! Just mix asparagus, a bagel, and chicken nuggets in a sandwich maker, and then you can enjoy a fun game of golf.

#6- Magimmery Mist

Be careful when eating this recipe since it could blow you away with its great taste! With a lemon meringue pie, blueberries, and ginger ale in a blender, it creates a funnel like no other!

#7- Fluffed Snuglapuffin

Royalty aren't the only people who deserve this majestic morsel. Any Webkinz deserves it! Just mix chicken noodle soup, cookies, and hot chocolate in a stove, and enjoy feeling like a queen or king!

#8- Pikapakora

How can you be picky of this delightful treat? By putting a taco, pickle, and a watermelon in a sandwich maker, you can make this western meal for any time of the day!

#9- Slipinsip

Be sure to hold onto this drink while you sip it. Made with a banana, jelly, and iced tea in a blender, it sure can get away from you with its awesome taste!

#10- Wild Kiwi Sunset

What's the perfect drink to enjoy while you watch the sunset on a beach? A Wild Kiwi Sunset! Even if you aren't on a beach, it still makes a great drink to enjoy with any meal, at any time of the day. Just put a papaya, kiwi fruit, and a coconut in a blender, and the only other instruction is to sit back and enjoy!

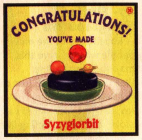
©KANZ

#11- Unidentified Frying Omelet

It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's an Unidentified Frying Omelet? Made with eggs, a tomato, and nacho chips in a stove, it's sure to put a smile on your Webkinz' face at breakfast.

#12- Syzyglorbit

You'll be sure to get an A+ in Science class when you make this out-of-this-world treat! By mixing a candy apple, an orange, and pickles in a stove, you will have the whole universe in your hands, plus a very delicious treat.



#13- SS Blueberry Bounty

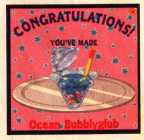
The seas can get pretty rough. There is a way your Webkinz can enjoy the sound and smell of the sea, have a tasty treat, and be safe all at the same time! How? By making an SS Blueberry Bounty. Just put jelly, blueberry cheesecake, and a peach in a stove.

#14- Jest the Best Bagel

A perfect snack for a perfect day, it will sure put a smile on your Webkinz face. Buy tacos, pickles, a bagel, and a sandwich maker, and voila!

#15- Ocean Bubblyglub

The sound of the ocean is calming; the taste, not so much. By making an Ocean Bubblyglub, you can enjoy both the sound and taste! Just put root bear, apple juice, and sushi in a blender.

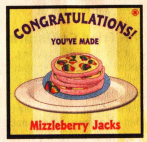


#16- Florbuzzall Buggaburst

Honey is delicious, especially when it's straight from the hive. Just put honey, sunflower seeds, and tomato soup in a stove, and enjoy the sweet taste!

#17- Mizzleberry Jacks

I wonder what you would get if you combined all of your Webkinz' favorite foods into one recipe? Mizzleberry Jacks! Just mix pancakes, pizza, and strawberries in a stove, and have them for breakfast, lunch, dinner, desert, or even a midnight snack.



#18- Slippamarink Sandwich

Be careful not to leave this out in the warm weather; it could turn into a swimming pool sandwich! Just put a bagel, an ice cream cone, and an ice pop in a sandwich maker. Be sure to keep it refrigerated!

#19- Health Juice

From the flu to a common cold, this juice can heal any kind of sickness. Feeling a little under the weather? Be sure to mix up some carrots, an apple, and watermelon in a blender, and drink every last drop! Recommended by Dr. Quack.

#20- Birthday Party Sandwich

This sandwich is perfect for any celebration, not just birthdays. By putting bread, macaroni and cheese, and a hot dog into a sandwich maker, you can enjoy an easy, delicious, and festive meal!

©UANZ

#21- Wishful Whirlawhip

If your Webkinz had three wishes, they'd wish for a Wishful Whirlawhip! By placing a candy apple, iced tea, and strawberry yogurt in a stove, you will be granting your Webkinz one of their three wishes.

#22- Chimericamaki

The fourth of July is a fun celebration in the United States. There's fireworks, barbecue, and not to mention all the parades! How about making a 4th of July special for your Webkinz by making a Chimericamaki? Just put blueberry cheesecake, apple juice, and sushi into a stove and tada!

#23- Fraidy Parfait

Though the ingredients are a little bizarre, there's no reason your Webkinz should be afraid of this drink. Who doesn't love an ice pop, chicken nuggets, and jelly in a stove? The only thing your Webkinz may be afraid of is asking for more!

#24- Bluffles Waffle Shack

There is no such thing as a real house made entirely of food. This tiny shack, however, makes the perfect breakfast, lunch, dinner, or dessert! By using waffles for the walls, a cupcake for the roof, and blueberries for decoration, you can create a perfect edible house. Don't forget to cook it in the stove, just to make it extra sturdy.

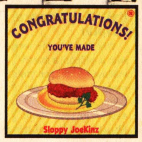
#25- Jellamazoo Jiggle

Haven't you always wondered what you would get if you combined an ice cream cone, jelly, AND licorice in a stove? Jellamazoo Jiggle! Named the funkiest recipe in Webkinz World, your Webkinz will definitely love it.

©UANZ

#26- Sloppy JoeKinz

Is it polite to use manners when eating? Of course! Except when eating a Sloppy JoeKinz. Spaghetti, a tomato, and bread in a sandwich maker make for a super sloppy mess!



#27- Berribrite Blast

I can guarantee you and your Webkinz will be more fascinated by the sight inside than the taste of the drink. Fireworks over a purple ocean is a once-in-a lifetime sight. By mixing cherries, cream soda, and dragon fruit in a blender, this really will "explode" in your mouth!

#28- Soccer Float

Soccer is a super fun sport for boys and girls. After the game, you and your teammates probably eat a special treat as a reward for your effort. This is the same in Webkinz World too! By mixing a chocolate bar, ice cream cone, and kiwi fruit in a blender, this float really has quite the "kick."

#29- Vegisicle

"Eat your vegetables, or no dessert!" "Vegetables make you grow healthy and strong!"

How many times do you hear this from your parents? It is correct, but you don't always like the taste of your vegetables. Webkinz don't either, unless you make them Vegisicles! Put carrots, peas, and an ice pop in a stove and they will enjoy it more than dessert.

#30- Galactic Gumball

Ever wonder if there's another planet out there in the Webkinz World Universe? Well, there is. It's the Galactic Gumball! Discovered by Goober himself, the planet is made entirely from an orange, honey, and a pumpkin. It can serve as a prop in your science class, or as lunch! Just make sure you cook it in a stove.

#31- Magmamora Lavallo

When making this recipe with a lollipop, a marshmallow, and dragon fruit, make sure to let it cool before taking a bite. It can easily burn your mouth. Also, be sure to cook it in a stove.

#32- Sloppy Jalopy

What is the best car in Webkinz World ever made? The Sloppy Jalopy made by WW (Webkinz World) Motor Companies! It leaves a trail of baked beans wherever it drives. YUM! Just put grapefruit, a hot dog, and baked beans in a stove, and you can make your own mini edible version.

#33- Veggie Dip

This is the only dip that can go with ANY food. From chips to apples, this dip was made for all foods. By mixing milk, mushrooms, and tomato soup, this dip takes only a few minutes in the blender for an all-night or day dip!

#34- Sappirake Scones

Hear ye, hear ye, all subjects of Webkinz World! What's better than living in a castle? Eating a castle! Now you can with three ingredients: blueberry cheesecake, corn flake cereal, and a coconut in a stove.

#35- Quendidot Buzzitree

This recipe is anything but swampy! It's made with the yummiest of ingredients: honey, pink lemonade, and a salad in a blender.

#36- Fried Foofaraw

It's a tornado, RUN! No, wait; it's just a Fried Foofaraw, a swirly mixture of french fries, lemon meringue pie, and carrot cake in a stove.

#37- Punchy Nutkins

Everyone loves fruit snacks, but they all come in the same flavors: strawberry, raspberry, and blueberry. Have you ever had Punchy Nutkins: a pumpkin, fruit punch, and peanuts in a stove? It's a new great food sensation! It comes in a pouch, so feel free to carry (and eat) it anywhere; even bring it to lunch at school. If you can't wait that long, feel free to eat it on the bus.

#38- Blucocrunch Bread

At dinner, you may occasionally want to have a loaf of bread to slice and enjoy. This bread will usually be plain, honey whole wheat or sourdough. For dessert, you have the usual: cookies, cake, pie, cheesecake, or cupcakes. Not anymore! How about bread for dessert? It's made with a chocolate bar, blueberry cheesecake, and potato chips in a stove. Simple to make, but fun to break!

#39- Scary Berry Crunch

Hmmm... what to bring to the Halloween party? You could make cookies. What about Scary Berry Crunch? It's a unique dish for anytime and anywhere that will have people coming back for seconds. It's very simple too; just combine potato chips, a pumpkin, and strawberries in a stove!

#40- Stikagoo Cake

Bubblegum is sticky, and so is toffee! But, what is the stickiest recipe in the world? Stikagoo Cake! Made with toffee, cake, and a chocolate milkshake in a stove, this cake will make you want more, and a napkin.

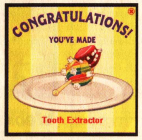
#41- Trippple Hot Chocolate

With the exception of homework, triple anything is great! That's why your Webkinz will absolutely LOVE this Trippple Hot Chocolate. It's made with the three best chocolate foods: chocolate bar, hot chocolate and chocolate milk in a blender. This will have you saying, "I want triple the serving!"

#42- Tooth Extractor

There are many ways to pull out a tooth: the old toaster trick, the door handle operation, and so forth. What is simple to make, and painless to take? A Tooth Extractor of course! Simply put a pumpkin pop, licorice bats, and a phantom pop in a stove, and take a bite for a painless way to remove any loose teeth. (The phantom pop was an item given out in the Halloween 2006 gift bag. It has not returned since, so it is very rare.)



#43- Squirrelly Brittle

Squirrels aren't the only ones who get to enjoy this squirrelly treat. Your Webkinz will too! Just put peanuts, sunflower seeds, and toffee in a stove and enjoy the natural brittle taste.

#44- Trickle Treacle

Trick or treat, give me something good to eat! You will usually get candy, but if you go to the right house, you might get Trickle Treacle. It's a yummy drink made with cola, a pumpkin, and pickles in a blender. It will have you coming back to that house for more!

#45- Banattle Dome

The most exciting events are held in the Banattle Dome. Your Webkinz can even eat an exact replica of the dome as well. Just put ramen noodles, a banana, and shrimp in a stove and serve it for any meal!

#46- Yogurt Twist Smoothie

Yogurt is delicious, and it's a favorite among all types of Webkinz. Now with the Yogurt Twist Smoothie, you can put a twist on yogurt! A banana, strawberry yogurt, and kiwi fruit are the ingredients, and you blend them all in a blender from the W Shop.

#47- Fizzletwist Pop

There are all kinds of pop, but have you ever had Fizzletwist Pop before? Produced by Webkinz World Inc., this pop will be the best you have ever had! The secret recipe is cola, cream soda, and licorice in a stove.

#48- Icy Frosty

There are many fancy recipes out there, so it's hard to find a simple drink to make on a hot summer day. Well, how about an Icy Frosty? It's an ice cream cone, bottled water, and watermelon in a blender for a delicious frosted drink.

#49- Miellabeelado

Voted the spiciest beverage in Webkinz World, it's no wonder that everyone can only handle one sip. This item is made with a chocolate milkshake, honey, and tacos in a blender. Be careful not to drink too much!

#50- Fancy Schmancy Waffles

Plain waffles can get a bit boring at times. However, the next time you want waffles for breakfast, how about making Fancy Schmancy Waffles? They're made with an ice cream cone, strawberries, and waffles in a sandwich maker. This can also be a deli-

A Webkinz Poem

BY KYLE, AGE 9, WINDSOR, ONTARIO

My Webkinz are so great,
Although I only have eight.
My favorite of all is my turtle named Franklin,
He really is cool and friendly enough to win.
I can play with my animals online,
Just to pass the time.
The adventure never ends,
As I make many virtual friends.
My favourite game is the Wishing Well,
I play it every day on my Dell.
And when the time is right,
I wish my Webkinz goodnight.
Webkinz is very fun,
It is suitable for everyone!

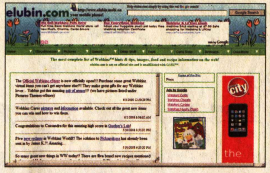
Elubin.com Covers Webkinz

A great site for Webkinz fans

BY DOUG KALE



I recently chatted with the webmaster of Elubin.com, Eric Lubin. Here's what he had to say about the Webkinz section of his website.

When and why did you create your site on Webkinz?

I created the site around November, 2006 for my kids. They got their first Webkinz as birthday presents and we were all fascinated by the recipes. So we built a small website to keep track of foods and recipes. Originally anyone on the Internet could come to the site and add recipes. That site quickly grew through traffic on various search engines and we did a major overhaul of the site around June, 2007 and added much more than food and recipes. Finally around January, 2008 the new look and menus were added.

What are the top areas of your site?

The most popular areas of the site (and the ones that distinguish us from other Webkinz fan sites) are the Did You Know section, the Pictures sections, the check lists, the birthday pages, and the pet names. The 'Did You Know' section is a collection of interesting facts about Webkinz that our users find, such as virtual items in previews that you can't really get, funny things your pet can do by accident, or helpful hints like what shows on wallpaper and flooring when you use the same ones in different size rooms.

Can you tell us some interesting facts about the site that most people might not know about?

My kids really do go through all the submissions for Room of the Week and pick their favorites! We don't really have every food in the pantry (wish we did). There are over 150,000 pet birthdays listed.

How many Webkinz do you have in your collection?

Everyone in the family (including my 4-year-old) has their own Webkinz account. Our first pet ever was my son's St. Bernard named Snuggles and my first pet was, of course, my pet Panda, Yabbie!

Anything else you'd like to share with our readers about elubin.com?

We are not an official site and are not affiliated with Ganz. We can't correct missing items or lost items; users must contact Ganz directly. Finally I would like to offer a very special thank you to some community members who help me manage the birthday list and Curio Shop rare item list. I couldn't do it without them!

Thanks Eric!

Webkinz I'd Like to See

SENT IN BY KRISTINA S., AGE 10, FROM HONOLULU, HI

I have been brain-storming ideas for a very long period of time and I thought these were some good ideas for Webkinz.

My animal ideas are: a bald eagle, cottontail rabbit, Jack Russell terrier, Welsh Corgi, Grizzly Bear, Golden Tabby, Cockatoo Bird, White Horse, and Sea Otter.

Virtual Fun

BY ALYSE Z., VIA E-MAIL

Webkinz, Webkinz, all day and night,
Always playin' on the site!
Shining Stars, same thing too,
Always something new to do!
In the morning, and before bed,
Yep, all the time, that's what I said!
Now this poem is done,
Let's go have lots of virtual pet fun!

HOW TO USE THIS PRICE GUIDE

WHAT'S LISTED
All Webkinz products listed in the price guide are licensed by Ganz and carry a secondary market value.

WHAT THE COLUMNS MEAN
The LO and HI columns reflect current retail selling ranges. The HI column on the right generally represents the full retail selling price. The LO column on the left generally represents the lowest price one would expect to find with extensive shopping.

Webkinz COLLECTOR'S CORNER

Interviewing Webkinz fans from around the country

BY DOUG KALE

Hi everyone! For this edition of Webkinz Collector's Corner I interviewed Marie F. from Anderson, South Carolina.

She has 74 Webkinz in her collection, however not all of them are included in her picture. Marie's cat, Boots, also decided to join the picture taking. Here's what Marie had to say about Webkinz and other fun stuff.

How many Webkinz do you have in your collection?

I have 74, but not all of them are in my picture.

WEBKINZ FANS ARE EVERYWHERE!

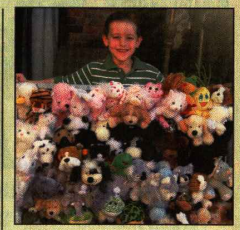
HERE ARE A FEW MORE COLLECTORS AND THEIR WEBKINZ

ALLIE

This is Allie, age 8, from Roseville, California. Her favorite Webkinz pet is her Lil'Kinz Tree Frog and her favorite game is Wacky Zingoz Extreme. Allie had this to say about Webkinz: "I have 34 Webkinz. I got my first Webkinz, a Panda, for my eighth birthday from my older sister. My favorite thing to do on Webkinz is talk to my friends at the Clubhouse. I also read Plushie Pals because it has my two favorite websites in it: Webkinz and Club Penguin."

SHAYLIN

Here's Shaylin, age 8, from Elkford, BC, Canada. She currently has 21 Webkinz in her collection and says that number is growing fast! She heard about Webkinz from her step sister Krysten. Shaylin's favorite Webkinz is her newest one, the Collie.



HAYDEN

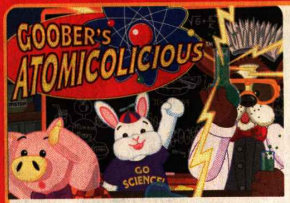
Can you tell that Hayden is very happy about his Webkinz collection? This six year old from Plano, Texas, has a grand total of 93 Webkinz pets. His favorite is the St. Bernard. It also looks like Hayden found a great way to display and store his collection too.

LAUREN AND NATALIE

This is Lauren (age 9) and Natalie G. (age 8). Here's what they had to say. "We are the proud owners of 53 Webkinz! We don't have a certain favorite because we love them all! We play on Webkinz about two hours a day. We can't get enough!" Lauren's sister got her first Webkinz before most people had heard of them. It was the Basset Hound, which is now retired.

If you have a large Webkinz collection, I'd like to hear from you!

READERS: Send me your name, age, city, how many Webkinz you own and a picture of you with your collection. Also, mention which one is your favorite! You can e-mail your photo and info to me at plushiepals@beckett.com or send your picture to: Beckett Plushie Pals, Attn: Doug Kale, 4635 McEwen Rd., Dallas, TX 75244.



Goober's at it again with a new experiment on the go. This time, he needs all the help he can get!

HOW TO PLAY

Take turns with your partner to try and make lines of three or more atoms. Once you make a line, it will fill up one of your four test tubes. Larger lines give you more points and an extra turn. The first to fill all four test tubes will be the winner. Both players will receive KinzCash at the end.

TECHNIQUE

When you start the game, immediately look for possible lines of four atoms, even if it isn't your turn; you should always be prepared for the next move. If you cannot find a set of one, try and make combinations of atoms near the bottom of the screen. This way, more atoms will fall down from the top of the screen. If they make a combination of three while falling down, you get to keep the KinzCash and it fills up the test tube more. If you make a combination near the top of the screen, less atoms fall down, making it harder for more combinations to fall down. It is possible to win the game within the first turn because of this.

As you can see, I have filled up my test tubes about even. This is always a good move to make, just in case a color becomes scarce on the board and you don't have any of it. From here, I can now choose one color and fill it up to the top. If I continue to try and keep them even, it will be difficult for me to fill up any of the tubes, resulting in me losing the game. In another game I played, my opponent was too busy keeping all her test tubes even and she lost the game.

Near the end of the game, focus only on the colors you do not have filled to the top yet. They should not be at zero because you kept them all at an even number in the beginning. If you do see a line of four atoms, click on it. You will receive more KinzCash, and it will prevent your opponent from clicking on it.

TIPS & TRICKS

TIP #1 Low on KinzCash? You will also see KinzCash coins on the board. If you make a line of three coins, you will receive three KinzCash! The only problem with this is, it does not fill up your test tubes. I would recommend using this technique if you have most of your test tubes filled (and your opponent does not) or if you have no other moves on the board. Don't worry though; you still receive KinzCash for every combo of atoms you make.

TIP #2 If your opponent is going to win, see if you can make a line of eye-droppers. By making a line of these, you will lower your opponent's test tubes.

TIP #3 Always look for lines of four atoms. You can also look for five and six lines of atoms, but these are very rare. These will fill up your colored test tubes a lot and give you an extra turn!

TIP #4 When choosing which line of atoms to click, try doing a color that you do not have a lot of. This way, you will keep them all even.

TIP #5 If you have a choice between a line of four red atoms (and you have already filled your test tube) or a line of three blue atoms (and you have only filled the blue tube a little), definitely choose the line of four atoms. This will give you an extra turn, and might open up a few more choices for you; if not, you can still choose that line of three atoms.

Watch for a polar bear and a crab named Klutzy!

BY NICKY ROSENGARD

YE OLDE IGLOO CONTEST
It's time for penguins with a passion for decorating to jostle and juggle their way to victory in Ye Olde Decorating Igloo contest!
Contest begins on May 23.
Check out the new furniture catalog for great medieval themed furniture.
Judges will be looking for medieval decor themes.
Be creative! It's not just the igloo with this month's furniture that wins. Style, finesse and flare matter!
Judging takes place May 25 - 26. Winners announced on May 29 will receive 10,000 coins each!
Good luck to all decorators. Go forth, and decorate yonder igloo!

What's New

Rockhopper's ship, the Migrator, departed a few weeks ago from Club Penguin. But before he left, he opened two new rooms on his ship. One is the Crows Nest on the mast. It has a cannon and if you mouse over it you'll fire a cannonball. The other room is Rockhopper's crew's quarters, a room that has been locked since the cargo hold of the ship was opened a few months ago. The room has a multi-player game, which you'll find in one of the sandboxes in the room.

There was some fun stuff to do at Club Penguin recently. There was the Igloo contest where you designed your igloo and had the judges take a look at it. If you won, your penguin would appear in the newspaper. The first 10 winners got 25,000 coins and the second 10 winners got 10,000 coins. There was also a book writing contest (winners were announced on May 29th), and if you won, your book got put in the bookroom above the coffee shop.

The medieval party also just wrapped up and it had lots of decorations and two free items. One was a wizard hat (it was originally given out at the 2006 Halloween party at the top of the lighthouse). Along with the party came clothes, an igloo upgrade catalog (the new igloo was a pink version of the ice castle), a furniture catalog and a new Puffle catalog.

At Large

Since January of 2008, there's been a mission to capture two suspects. Here are their names and descriptions, which can also be found inside the Club Penguin Agency HQ or in the spy manual:

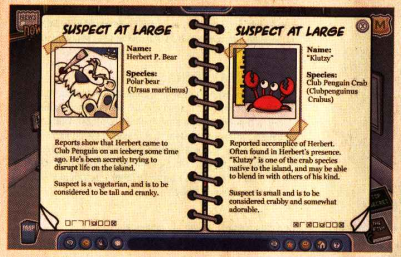
Name: Herbert P. Bear
Species: Polar bear

The report shows that Herbert came to Club Penguin on an iceberg some time ago. He's been secretly trying to disrupt life on the island.

Suspect is a vegetarian, and is to be considered tall and cranky.
— Penguin Secret Agency description, AKA P.S.A.

This is what I saw after playing the most recent missions.

Herbert appears to have been a polar bear who did not like the cold weather of the North Pole, so he decided to head south towards warmer weather. He told me his story through drawings while I was kept in a jail cell inside a cave. In one drawing, it actually shows his iceberg drifting by a group of sunny islands with palm trees in the background. In the mission you play from your penguin's point of view, so you only see the speech bubbles and other penguins and animals. His iceberg then collapsed and he couldn't swim, but Klutzy his crab friend rescued him.



SUSPECT AT LARGE

Species: Polar bear (Ursus maritimus)
Reports show that Herbert came to Club Penguin on an iceberg some time ago. He's been secretly trying to disrupt life on the island.
Suspect is a vegetarian, and is to be considered to be tall and cranky.
SUSPECT AT LARGE
Name: "Klutzy"
Species: Club Penguin Crab (Clubpenguinus Crabus)
Reported accomplice of Herbert. Often found in Herbert's presence. "Klutzy" is one of the crab species native to the island, and may be able to blend in with others of his kind.
Suspect is small and is to be considered crabby and somewhat adorable.

Once safe, Herbert realized he had several problems. The first was that the place he was in was even colder than where he last lived! The other was that the penguins were disturbing him, so he decided to chop down the ski lodge, but his plan failed. He then tried to damage the clock tower and succeeded, but then later it was fixed.

Coming Soon!

For the past few months, Club Penguin has been working on a project called Club Penguin Improvement Project, or CPIP. At first they did a server test, where every single penguin was a green puffle. Then they added new servers. They're also about to add new useful features, like saving postcards you receive from people and new inventory organizing for your penguin! The new improvements are probably going to come out very soon. For more information on this go to www.clubpenguin/cpip.com.

YOUR GUIDE TO TY GIRLZ ONLINE

FROM A FAN'S POINT OF VIEW

BY KATHERINE ARCHIBALD

HI! MY NAME IS KATHERINE. I am 10 years old and I love playing on Ty Girlz. I have three Ty Girlz: Sizzlin Sue, Cute Candy, and Lovely Lola. If you're interested in Ty Girlz, I've put together some tips to help you on the site (www.Tygirlz.com).

CHOOSING YOUR GIRL

The setup of the site and the plush doll is similar to Webkinz, but with girls. You can find the Ty Girlz at a variety of stores (I get mine at a store called Chapters). These dolls all have a cutting-edge style that makes it hard to choose the right one. Here are two tricks for picking one: 1) select one if it's dressed in your favorite color, or 2) think to yourself and say, "If I were to buy any of these outfits in a store, which one would I buy?"

ENTERING THE WORLD

Remember how I said earlier that this is just like Webkinz? Well, this part totally relates! On your Girlz' wrist (normally attached to a bracelet), there is a heart that looks like the Ty plush tag. However, this one is glittery and pink (the shade of pink varies depending on how old it is), and contains a secret code to activate your Girlz. So, cut off the swing tag and open it up. You should see a gray blotch to scratch off. Find a coin and scratch it off. A secret code should be under that. Next, go to www.tygirlz.com and enter the code and information needed. Also, make up your own user-name and password. HINT: I always write my information for online clubs on a Post-it note and stick it under the keyboard.

CUSTOMIZING YOUR GIRL

Once you're on, you'll be able to play all day. You get 1,500 Ty dollars to spend on food and clothes and makeovers for your Girl. You can also chat around the world, update your home-page, play games and activities in the arcade, decorate your room, and text message and update your Ty Phone, all for FREE! So, as you see, there are a zillion neat features on Ty Girlz that will keep you busy.

OTHER NEAT STUFF

Ty Girlz is a very popular toy and could become as hot as Webkinz someday. They have great games in the arcade such as Doors for Dollars where you can earn virtual cash very quickly. Other games that can earn you money quickly are: What's In the Bag?, Girlz Music Mixer, Girlz Bounce, Balloon Pop!, Skee Ball, Mosquito Mayhem and many more!

THE TY GIRLZ WORLD PREVIEW

If you're unsure if you will like the Ty Girlz site or want more information, you can try their preview site for free. Go online at www.tygirlz.com and click on "Try this FREE Secret Code!" Next a window will pop up and say: "What is the secret code?" You can type this secret code into the box for the preview: 1234.

I hope my quick Ty Girlz guide helped you a lot. Have fun playing!

Beanie Babies 2.0

Frequently asked questions

BY JENNIFER WOOD

CAN YOU EXPLORE NEW PLACES IN BEANIE LAND?

You can use the following to explore:

a) the Shortcuts top right of screen
b) the Map bottom right of screen
c) mouse over things to discover links to various places

CAN YOU GO SHOPPING IN 2.0 LAND?

It says the General Store is coming soon.

HOW DO I GET A WATERING CAN?

Mayor Bean gives it to you after you fill all of your Meters.

MY HIGH SCORES ARE NOT SHOWING UP. IS THAT A COMMON PROBLEM?

CustomerService@ty.com is very helpful if you need to report any glitches.

I CLICKED ON MAYOR BEAN FOR HELP BUT HE DOES NOT SAY ANYTHING!

Clicking on Mayor Bean, at the bottom center of the screen, changes the light on him from GREEN to RED and back again. To have text bubbles pop up as you mouse over stuff in Beanie Land, keep the Mayor's light on GREEN.

WHERE DO I REGISTER ADDITIONAL 2.0s TO BUILD MY FAMILY METER?

Go to Ty.com and click on the BB2.0 section to enter. Be sure to select RETURNING USER and log in with your registered account to have all of your 2.0s registered as one Family.

HOW DO I ADD SOMEONE AS A FRIEND IN A CHAT AREA?

Click on the person and the Add Friend icon will pop up. Click on it to add the person. Adding Friends fills your Friend Meter.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND FOOD BEANS?

Periodically you can find Food Beans in various Beanie Lands. Sometimes the Beans may be "hiding" behind the House Beanies, but if you walk (use arrow keys) up to the House Beanies, you can still pick up the Bean. You will see your 2.0 react as if they just picked the Bean up. The Beans go into your Backpack after you walk into them. You can also win Food Beans from playing games.

WHAT CAN MY 2.0 EAT IN BEANIE LAND? ALSO, WHAT DOES IT MEAN WHEN YOUR BEANIE LOOKS KIND OF SICK AND THE FOOD METER'S LOW?

You can eat the red Food Beans and your 2.0 will get a bubble over their head, showing you what they are "eating."

You don't feed the Beans to the 2.0s directly from the ground. First walk up to the Beans on the ground, and then they'll "magically" go into your backpack as you walk into them. Then, to feed your 2.0, click on the Backpack icon at the bottom of the screen. This opens the pack. Then, "grab" a red Bean from inside your Backpack by clicking on it until it sticks to your cursor arrow. There should be a red Bean on the first "page" of your Backpack, with a number under it, indicating how many Beans you have accumulated in your pack. Then the pack should automatically close as you take the Bean to your 2.0 and feed them by clicking on them with the Bean.

When your 2.0s look sick or tired and have a low Hunger Meter, that means they need to be fed. Feed them until your Hunger Meter goes back to 100% full and they should return to normal.

I DIDN'T KNOW YOU COULD WIN FOOD BEANS. SO THAT'S HOW YOU GET A BUNCH? WHEN DO YOU BEGIN WINNING FOOD BEANS AS PRIZES FOR PLAYING GAMES?

I'm not fully sure. I wonder if there's a certain point where the game feels you've won enough prizes and switches to Beans? I also wonder if there's a finite amount of varieties of various prizes.

I started winning Food Beans after I had won tons of other stuff. It's been speculated about why that happens, but a real consensus has not been reached. It was first thought prizes were based on performance in games, but that has not always held true. I also usually find several Beans per day in each area. In fact, I make a point to visit all main Beanie Land areas each time I log on, just so I can gather the Beans.

DOES A FULL TUMMY MAKE THEM FASTER OR GIVE THEM ABILITY THE TO SCORE HIGHER IN THE GAMES?

The only thing I've noticed is that right after you feed them, if there are Beans on the ground and you pick them up (to have them go in your pack), the 2.0 that picked up the Bean after just being fed will react in a spunky way. For example, Quackly will do a flip and McLucky clicks his heels together. Each 2.0 reacts in its own unique, spunky way. You have to feed them right before you pick the Beans up from the ground though or you won't see these special moves.

WHAT DID I DO TO GET MORE BEANSTALK HOUSE ROOMS?

Each 2.0 you register gets two rooms that are added to your Beanstalk, so the number of rooms and which rooms you see are directly related to which BB2.0s you have registered. Each suite of rooms belongs to a specific 2.0. The Beanstalk rooms give us glimpses at each 2.0s "personality."

The order in which you register the BB2.0s determines where on the Beanstalk they are located (the earlier they're registered, the lower their rooms are on the Beanstalk), so each Beanstalk will look differently.

WHAT CAN YOU DO IN THE BEANSTALK HOUSE?

The Beanstalk contains all your 2.0's rooms. It's a cute place to hang out and listen to what the House Beanies gossip about. Some rooms have things that jump to life as you mouse over them and others have things you can click to activate animations.

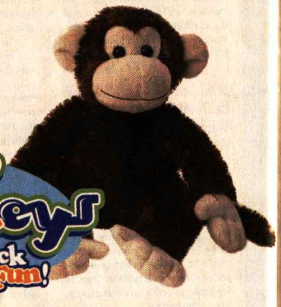
HOW CAN I MAKE MY 2.0 GO TO SLEEP?

If you do not move your 2.0 for a while and you let it just stay in one place (without clicking on it), if you're talking in a chat area, or if you're using the arrow keys, your 2.0 will automatically fall asleep. They look mighty cute while snoozing too!

Kookeys & Tracksters

They're set to shock the virtual world!

By Reed D. Pheuture



For months, there have been only murmurs. The rumors started in web forums and obscure virtual world internet blogs, but soon spread to pockets of children and gamers across the nation. Bits and pieces of information emerged—little details about an entirely new technology, about never-before seen features and an entirely new type of virtual World.

After months of speculation, what is it that's causing so much excitement and so much anticipation?

Through exclusive contacts within 10VOX Entertainment, Beckett Media LP and Plushie Pals magazine is proud to bring you the world premiere of two of the newest, most exciting virtual worlds—KooKeys and Tracksters!!!

KooKeys: The Next Generation

Coming August 1st, 2008

Just six months after the highly successful Beta launch of the KooKeys virtual world, 10VOX insiders have revealed that an entirely new virtual world is in the works. "We can't even begin to express how excited we are about this completely new version of KooKeys—our players spoke, and we listened. Now, we're merging cutting-edge virtual technology with an amazing new virtual world—this will simply blow away anything else out there," says Kevin Kolinski, a head virtual worlds architect for 10VOX Entertainment. "We've really spent the time to listen to our players and hear what they want to see in a virtual experience." says Kevin. "And this ground-up redesign of KooKeys is exactly that—a fresh, completely new experience unlike anything else out there."

With a completely redesigned virtual world, many die-hard fans are asking: what's going to be different? Dean Cheshire, a senior KooKeys Developer, helps explain the answer. "This is a totally new experience. We took everyone's favorite things in KooLand and expanded on them: more games, more fun, and unbelievable chat options, but the biggest difference is interactivity."

"We're bringing a true 2.5D environment to KooKeys; now, you can walk down Main Street, walk through your neighborhood, and stop and have a chat with your friends; we have a lot of really interesting surprises too."

But the shocking news for KooKeys fans isn't limited to the virtual realm. By early Fall '08, expect a whole new set of friendly faces to join the popular KooKeys lineup. In addition to an assortment of new KooKeys friends, there will also be limited-edition collections of Halloween and holiday-themed KooKeys as well. Similarly, familiar and popular KooKeys characters will be retired from the KooKeys lineup, never to be reintroduced. "Simply put, we have some very special characters in the current KooKeys lineup—characters that may have some very special advantages in the new KooKeys site," says Darrell Bagby, a senior 10VOX V.P.

"In addition, we've worked with our very best plush designers, and we've come up with some amazing new characters" says Mr. Bagby. "The greatest part is that we've had a chance to spend time and really put our finger on what children want—our new friends in the KooKeys lineup will prove that."

Tracksters: Trick, Tune, Triumph!

TRACKSTERS: A Preview

Imagine a world of ultimate speed--a world where head-to-head racing is the ultimate test of skill. In this world, every imaginable type of racing is at your fingertips: dirt track, circle track, drag, off-road, and much more. There are many challengers, and many contests, but few winners.

Winning only comes to the greatest racers—racers of legendary skill—who stay on top by constantly tuning vehicles and refining their skills to compete in Tracksters' ultimate high-stakes racing. In Tracksters, winners are created and destroyed in seconds.

In this world, racers must not only beat other online racers, but also defeat a digital juggernaut that is threatening the Tracksters world. This fierce, computerized opponent vows to take over the Tracksters world and as a Tracksters racer, you may be the only one that can stop him. This unstoppable android racer has emerged, clad from head to toe in black racing leather, to prove that humans can never compete in the world of the future. This mysterious opponent seeks total domination in every realm of racing in the Tracksters world. Armed with razor-sharp intelligence, terrifying skills, and a top-secret vehicle, this dark rival poses an unyielding challenge to Tracksters' racers. Do you have what it takes to be the Supreme Race Champion?

TRACKSTERS: A World Premiere Coming October 1st, 2008

On October 1st, 2008, the world's most anticipated product launch of 2008—Tracksters—will be available at retailers across the nation. Tracksters is poised to become the ultimate racing experience for car lovers across the world. "The Tracksters line is truly unbelievable. The excitement this product is generating in the marketplace is truly beyond anything we could have expected," says Alex Reece, a senior 10VOX V.P. "We've achieved the highest levels of quality with Tracksters. The cars and our state-of-the-art virtual world are truly beyond compare." Initially released as a collection of 24 premium, collectible die-cast cars and premium trading cards, Tracksters promises a revolutionary new vision for virtual worlds.

EXCLUSIVE INFORMATION

10VOX SHOCKS the Virtual Community!!!

For months there have been whispers. First it was children, endlessly surfing blogs and forums for the latest developments in the virtual world. Virtual world insiders across the nation spoke of an entirely new type of product that will start something new and different. Rumors swirled of new technologies, new games, and a completely new world, but as interest continued to bloom, details remained few. Soon, industry insiders began to pay attention—was there really something to this new rumor? Could there really be a revolutionary rebirth of the popular KooKeys just around the corner?

Until now, officials from 10VOX Entertainment have been silent about what lays in store for the KooKeys line. Attempts to learn more information about KooKeys from key 10VOX insiders have been met with little more than sly smiles and "we'll see" responses. What could possibly be in store for KooKeys that could generate this kind of excitement?

NEOPETS' 999TH GAME — DESTRUCT-O-MATCH III!

TAKING A LOOK AT THE HISTORY OF BLOULDER BREAKING

By Rebecca Bundy

Destruct-o-Match is one of the most famous Neopets games, and the third installment to this boulder-breaking strategy game is definitely pumping fun up to a whole new level. But before we look at its newest version, let's take a look back at the first two versions and remember the origins that have made this game a blast to play.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH

The first game was a big hit from the beginning. Based on the Collapse games, the basic object is to destroy boulders of similar colors until there are none left. The catch is that you can only destroy a boulder if it's touching at least one other boulder of the same color. The original version had no special features and unlike later versions, which give you a new boulder color after several rounds, you would get a new boulder color every round. To pass a round, you must meet or beat a certain score for each round.

Playing the game now, the sound played whenever you break boulders is extremely annoying, but I like the fact that a single game takes a lot less time due to the individual rounds being a lot more intense.

When the first game was retired in favor of the newer version, a lot of people were extremely upset. They preferred the simplicity of DoM and the fact that a single game didn't take nearly as much time as one in the newer version. Originally, the only way to play DoM was by typing in "boohooiwanttheoldgameback" at the "select a game mode" screen in DoM II. It currently resides in the Game Graveyard.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH II

The sequel to DoM introduces many new variables to the standard "blow up boulders" formula, including different play modes and special boulders.

Instead of just blowing up boulders at your own speed, which became the classic or standard mode, the Zen and Extreme modes are introduced. In the Zen mode, the game never truly ends and you can play it for days on end, but you do not get any NP for your progress. Extreme mode is the most like the Collapse games; every few seconds, a new row of boulders is added to the bottom, which slowly pushes the boulders on the screen upwards towards the top. If even a single boulder touches the top of the screen, it's game over. Personally, I rarely played the Extreme mode because I always loved the fact that DoM was one of the few Neopets games that I could walk away from without the game penalizing me. This meant that if something came up that I had to take care of, I would never lose my progress!

Along with several modes come special boulders. These boulders, when destroyed, will activate special features that generally help you, but you have to be careful and plan out when you want to use each.

TIMER: This boulder will turn into an Indestructible boulder after 15 seconds. If it's touching any boulders of the same color, they'll be turned as well. Destroy this one first!

EXPLODE: Destroys the eight boulders surrounding it when clicked and is the only way to destroy an Indestructible boulder. It's best to save this one until the end of the round.

FILL: Adds a new row of random blocks to the top. This can help you in later levels when you need extra points, but can deny you bonus points for clearing the board if you use it too late.

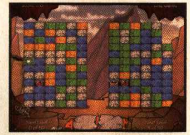
MULTIPLIER: The best boulder in the game. It will triple the points earned when it's destroyed. Obviously getting it to touch a large number of the same boulders will give you a huge amount of points.

OVERKILL: Destroys all blocks of its color, but denies you points you'd otherwise earn from destroying them. Use this while it's only touching a second block and only after you've cleared all of the blocks of the same color on the screen.

Though I (and many others) was a fan of the original, DoM II brought with it a huge variety of fun options that would eventually find a new home in DoM III. Sadly though, as of writing this, DoM II has not been moved to the Game Graveyard. Plus, those of you who haven't gotten the DoM II avatar yet (which you get after earning 2,500 points or more) may be out of luck.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH III

Neopets' 999th game is DoM III, which, like DoM II, takes what made the previous version great and builds on it. The original modes and special boulders have returned, but with them come brand new options and strategies that will make DoM III as popular as the originals.



Double Trouble and Double Trouble Extreme modes join the game options, giving players now five different ways to play the game. Double Trouble is the classic mode, but with two smaller screens of boulders instead of one larger one. Interestingly enough, you can play only one side until you're unable to beat the level's score and then move onto the second until it finally defeats you. This also means that if you mess up and fall on one side, it isn't game over yet! The special blocks, however, only affect the side that they're used on. Double Trouble Extreme is just Extreme mode on the two smaller screens.

New special boulders mean that while the game's still the same, how you play it has completely changed. Plus, certain special block effects will actually carry over into other rounds, so you can use them or save them for a rainy day!

MORPH: This boulder changes color randomly. It can be frustrating to wait for the right color to pop up, but if you're ever stuck with a block all on its own, this one can destroy it if it's touching.

WILDCARD: Unlike Morph, where you're waiting around for the right color, Wildcard can be used to break any color boulder that's touching it. While this card would be great to save until you're down to only a few boulders, it's extremely hard to save and generally gets gobbled up accidently because it's touching something you need to break.

SCAMANDER: Only available in the Extreme modes, this boulder keeps a new boulder from showing up below it when a new row is added. Scamander shows up a lot in the Extreme games, but I honestly didn't find it very useful since a single block not showing up could keep you from destroying other ones.

UNDO: One of two effects that carry over into new rounds. By clicking the paw print at the bottom (the left one), you can undo your last move. This is EXTREMELY useful for a bad break, but it sadly cannot be used after using any special boulder, which is generally when you will want to use it. It's still good for the occasional miss-click though.

SHUFFLE: Randomly shuffles all remaining boulders. This is my favorite of the new boulders and is especially useful when you're only a few points shy of the round's goal and a reshuffle may give you those last few breaks.

While Neopets has announced that their 1,000th game is going to be a special one, there's no reason that players won't be able to get the most out of their 999th. And though you may miss the original two games, with more modes to play through and more special boulders to work new strategies around, Destruct-o-Match III will definitely keep you entertained and rolling in NP.

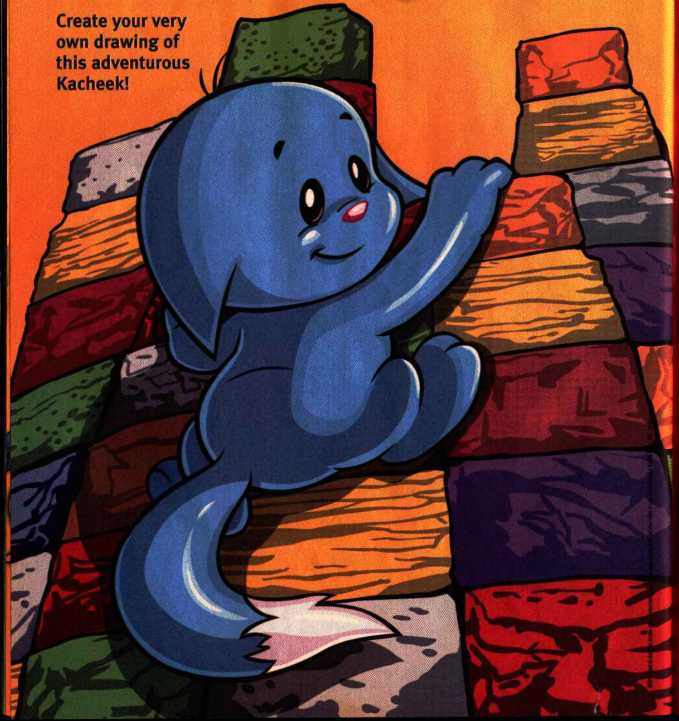
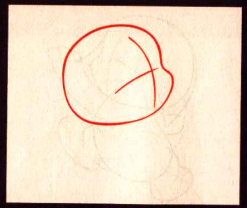
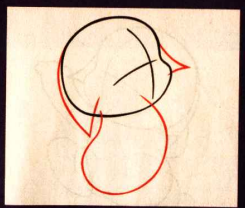
HOW TO DRAW
Chrillis
the Kacheek Traveler

Create your very own drawing of this adventurous Kacheek!

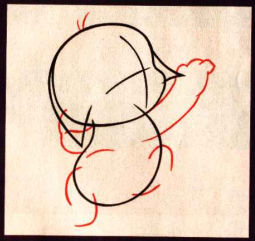




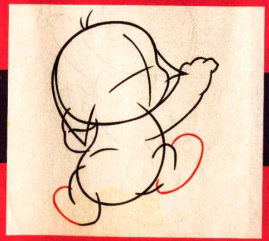
1 Start your drawing of Chrillis with a large, rounded shape for the Kacheek's head. Next, lightly sketch a pair of crossed lines on the head shape where Chrillis's face will be. This will help you when placing his facial features later on.



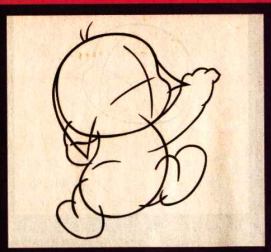
2 Next, give Chrillis a pair of downward-pointing Kacheek ears. Then, make a rounded teardrop-like shape for his body.



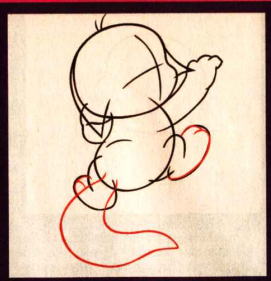
3 Since Chrillis is climbing a large rock wall, his arms will need to be raised and gripping the wall. To make his right arm, draw a pair of long curved lines, and then add a paw to the end of them. Since Chrillis is holding onto the wall, his fingers will be bent. For his left arm, make a curved line that connects his body to the side of his head, and then draw a wavy line inside the arm shape that you just formed for his shoulder. Next, it's time to start working on Chrillis's legs. On the bottom of his body shape, make four curved lines for the tops of Chrillis's legs, which are a bit bunched up to help him climb. Finally, add two little hairs to the top of the Kacheek's head.



4 Finish making Chrillis's legs by drawing a large curve at the bottom of each one to form his feet.



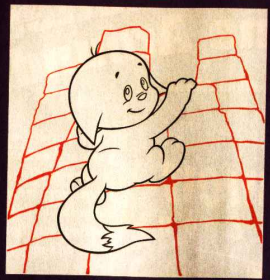
5 Your drawing should now look like this.



6 Give Chrillis's feet a bit more shape by dividing them into toes. Then, draw his long, bushy tail.

7 Erase any extra lines you might have on your drawing.

8 Using the pair of guide lines you made in the first step, draw Chrillis's face. Place his eyes on the horizontal guide line. Be sure to make a little circle in each of them for the sparkle in his eyes. Above his eyes, draw Chrillis's raised eyebrows. Finally, give him a cute Kacheek nose and a crooked little smile. When you've finished drawing his face, add some furry texture to his tail and include the marking at the very tip of it.



9 Erase all of your remaining extra lines. Then, draw the rough block wall that Chrillis is climbing. It should look a bit like the stones in Destruct-O-Match II.

10 Give your drawing some color using anything you'd like, from crayons and colored pencils to a computer program!

11 Since Chrillis is climbing up the pile of stones at sunset, your drawing should have lots of dramatic shading to give it plenty of depth. Don't forget to add a lot of texture to the rocks, too!

12 Add a few highlights to make your drawing really shine, and you're finished! What will the Kacheek in your drawing find on the other side of that wall?

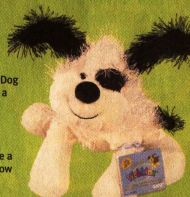
SURPRISE RETIREMENTS

Many of you who love to collect Webkinz were probably very surprised to hear that Ganz decided to retire two very recent releases: the Black and White Cheeky Dog and the Rhino. For those of you who were lucky enough to get one of each for your collection, good for you!



Here's an interesting question though: as these two newly retired Webkinz start to disappear from store shelves, will they become as scarce as the original Cheeky Dog and Cheeky Cat? The original Cheeky Dog was probably sitting on store shelves a lot longer than the Black and White Cheeky Dog. In the case of the Rhino, this one was probably the fastest retirement we've ever seen. So, if you have the chance to get one it might be a good idea because you never know how popular and valuable they could become one day.

Another batch of retirements also took place recently with the brand new Beanie Babies 2.0. The five newly retired Beanies 2.0 are: Fluffball, Rascal, Pico, Purry and Jumps. Several of these have only been out a few months. You can now see the entire collection of Beanies 2.0 including all of the retired ones inside this issue (p. 46). Check them out and let us know which one is your favorite.

With summer upon us and the heat causing both you and your Webkinz to run for cooler shelter, don't you think that a tasty meal would make them happy to be indoors? If you don't know the correct ingredients though, you'll just end up with a bowl of gunk. Eww! Yeah, it's not the nicest looking food and just imagine what your pet must think of it too. Luckily, we have a huge feature inside this issue that shows the first 50 of the Top 100 Webkinz Recipes of all time. We'll tell you which ingredients to mix together for the most delicious dishes. All of your pets will thank you and show you their appreciation with a great big smile.

Plus, don't forget to enter our Webkinz Contest for a chance to win a retired Unicorn. This time we're giving away five of them!

Have a fun summer!

Fun Facts

The Hippo
(a.k.a. Hippopotamus)

Hippos thrive in the rivers, swamps and other protected areas of Africa. Their diet consists of all types of vegetation in and near bodies of water. They can grow to be 13 feet long, up to five feet tall and weight up to three and a half tons. Their bodies are plump and bulky with short legs and webbed toes which help them glide through the water. Their legs are also very strong and can help them climb up steep areas. Never get too close to a hippo because they are also one of the more aggressive animals on the planet. The name hippo is Greek and means horse. These animals used to be called river horses.

In a surprising announcement, Ganz has retired both the Black and White Cheeky Dog and Rhino. Both of them were only available for a short period of time. It will be interesting to see if the demand for these two pets continues to grow after they disappear from store shelves.

$500 FOR A LIL'KINZ?

Back in May, Ganz mistakenly sent out a new Lil'Kinz Lamb to several retailers around the country. The Lil'Kinz Lamb was never mentioned, shown or promoted to anyone. About a dozen of them showed up recently on eBay and the bids for them went crazy! The Lamb was selling anywhere between $300 and $500 each. There's no word on when this Lil'Kinz pet will be released. Keep reading future issues of Plushie Pals for more details.

TOP 100 WEBKINZ RECIPES (PART 1)

Here are the secret ingredients to creating the perfect meals for your Webkinz pets

By Caitlin McInnis

#1- Slimescraper

If New York City was made of food, you would see this amazing Slimescraper! Well, don't worry. Your Webkinz can still enjoy this architecture for dinner! Just put oatmeal, chocolate pudding, and baked beans into a stove. All that's left is to serve, eat, and enjoy!

#2- Fried Callistorm

It's raining, it's pouring, sprinkles? This sweet treat could be on your Webkinz' plate for breakfast, lunch, or dinner! Or, if you can't wait that long, have it for a snack! Just buy some eggs, pancakes, and pizza, and cook them all up in a stove.

#3- Turretango Twist

The only way to climb this edible tower is to climb the french fry vines! Just cook cake, french fries, and a salad in a stove, and you and your Webkinz can live happily ever after!

#4- Fire and Water Sandwich

What's hot and cold at the same time, but still tastes great? A Fire and Water Sandwich, of course! Bread, watermelon, and dragon fruit in a sandwich maker will create this delicious sandwich.

#5- Hole In One

As you know, it's extremely rude to play with your food. The Hole in One recipe is an exception though! Just mix asparagus, a bagel, and chicken nuggets in a sandwich maker, and then you can enjoy a fun game of golf.

#6- Magimmery Mist

Be careful when eating this recipe since it could blow you away with its great taste! With a lemon meringue pie, blueberries, and ginger ale in a blender, it creates a funnel like no other!

#7- Fluffed Snuglapuffin

Royalty aren't the only people who deserve this majestic morsel. Any Webkinz deserves it! Just mix chicken noodle soup, cookies, and hot chocolate in a stove, and enjoy feeling like a queen or king!

#8- Pikapakora

How can you be picky of this delightful treat? By putting a taco, pickle, and a watermelon in a sandwich maker, you can make this western meal for any time of the day!

#9- Slipinsip

Be sure to hold onto this drink while you sip it. Made with a banana, jelly, and iced tea in a blender, it sure can get away from you with its awesome taste!

#10- Wild Kiwi Sunset

What's the perfect drink to enjoy while you watch the sunset on a beach? A Wild Kiwi Sunset! Even if you aren't on a beach, it still makes a great drink to enjoy with any meal, at any time of the day. Just put a papaya, kiwi fruit, and a coconut in a blender, and the only other instruction is to sit back and enjoy!

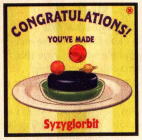
©KANZ

#11- Unidentified Frying Omelet

It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's an Unidentified Frying Omelet? Made with eggs, a tomato, and nacho chips in a stove, it's sure to put a smile on your Webkinz' face at breakfast.

#12- Syzyglorbit

You'll be sure to get an A+ in Science class when you make this out-of-this-world treat! By mixing a candy apple, an orange, and pickles in a stove, you will have the whole universe in your hands, plus a very delicious treat.



#13- SS Blueberry Bounty

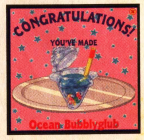
The seas can get pretty rough. There is a way your Webkinz can enjoy the sound and smell of the sea, have a tasty treat, and be safe all at the same time! How? By making an SS Blueberry Bounty. Just put jelly, blueberry cheesecake, and a peach in a stove.

#14- Jest the Best Bagel

A perfect snack for a perfect day, it will sure put a smile on your Webkinz face. Buy tacos, pickles, a bagel, and a sandwich maker, and voila!

#15- Ocean Bubblyglub

The sound of the ocean is calming; the taste, not so much. By making an Ocean Bubblyglub, you can enjoy both the sound and taste! Just put root bear, apple juice, and sushi in a blender.

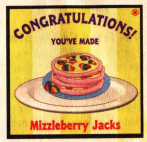


#16- Florbuzzall Buggaburst

Honey is delicious, especially when it's straight from the hive. Just put honey, sunflower seeds, and tomato soup in a stove, and enjoy the sweet taste!

#17- Mizzleberry Jacks

I wonder what you would get if you combined all of your Webkinz' favorite foods into one recipe? Mizzleberry Jacks! Just mix pancakes, pizza, and strawberries in a stove, and have them for breakfast, lunch, dinner, desert, or even a midnight snack.



#18- Slippamarink Sandwich

Be careful not to leave this out in the warm weather; it could turn into a swimming pool sandwich! Just put a bagel, an ice cream cone, and an ice pop in a sandwich maker. Be sure to keep it refrigerated!

#19- Health Juice

From the flu to a common cold, this juice can heal any kind of sickness. Feeling a little under the weather? Be sure to mix up some carrots, an apple, and watermelon in a blender, and drink every last drop! Recommended by Dr. Quack.

#20- Birthday Party Sandwich

This sandwich is perfect for any celebration, not just birthdays. By putting bread, macaroni and cheese, and a hot dog into a sandwich maker, you can enjoy an easy, delicious, and festive meal!

©UANZ

#21- Wishful Whirlawhip

If your Webkinz had three wishes, they'd wish for a Wishful Whirlawhip! By placing a candy apple, iced tea, and strawberry yogurt in a stove, you will be granting your Webkinz one of their three wishes.

#22- Chimericamaki

The fourth of July is a fun celebration in the United States. There's fireworks, barbecue, and not to mention all the parades! How about making a 4th of July special for your Webkinz by making a Chimericamaki? Just put blueberry cheesecake, apple juice, and sushi into a stove and tada!

#23- Fraidy Parfait

Though the ingredients are a little bizarre, there's no reason your Webkinz should be afraid of this drink. Who doesn't love an ice pop, chicken nuggets, and jelly in a stove? The only thing your Webkinz may be afraid of is asking for more!

#24- Bluffles Waffle Shack

There is no such thing as a real house made entirely of food. This tiny shack, however, makes the perfect breakfast, lunch, dinner, or dessert! By using waffles for the walls, a cupcake for the roof, and blueberries for decoration, you can create a perfect edible house. Don't forget to cook it in the stove, just to make it extra sturdy.

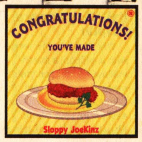
#25- Jellamazoo Jiggle

Haven't you always wondered what you would get if you combined an ice cream cone, jelly, AND licorice in a stove? Jellamazoo Jiggle! Named the funkiest recipe in Webkinz World, your Webkinz will definitely love it.

©UANZ

#26- Sloppy JoeKinz

Is it polite to use manners when eating? Of course! Except when eating a Sloppy JoeKinz. Spaghetti, a tomato, and bread in a sandwich maker make for a super sloppy mess!



#27- Berribrite Blast

I can guarantee you and your Webkinz will be more fascinated by the sight inside than the taste of the drink. Fireworks over a purple ocean is a once-in-a lifetime sight. By mixing cherries, cream soda, and dragon fruit in a blender, this really will "explode" in your mouth!

#28- Soccer Float

Soccer is a super fun sport for boys and girls. After the game, you and your teammates probably eat a special treat as a reward for your effort. This is the same in Webkinz World too! By mixing a chocolate bar, ice cream cone, and kiwi fruit in a blender, this float really has quite the "kick."

#29- Vegisicle

"Eat your vegetables, or no dessert!" "Vegetables make you grow healthy and strong!"

How many times do you hear this from your parents? It is correct, but you don't always like the taste of your vegetables. Webkinz don't either, unless you make them Vegisicles! Put carrots, peas, and an ice pop in a stove and they will enjoy it more than dessert.

#30- Galactic Gumball

Ever wonder if there's another planet out there in the Webkinz World Universe? Well, there is. It's the Galactic Gumball! Discovered by Goober himself, the planet is made entirely from an orange, honey, and a pumpkin. It can serve as a prop in your science class, or as lunch! Just make sure you cook it in a stove.

#31- Magmamora Lavallo

When making this recipe with a lollipop, a marshmallow, and dragon fruit, make sure to let it cool before taking a bite. It can easily burn your mouth. Also, be sure to cook it in a stove.

#32- Sloppy Jalopy

What is the best car in Webkinz World ever made? The Sloppy Jalopy made by WW (Webkinz World) Motor Companies! It leaves a trail of baked beans wherever it drives. YUM! Just put grapefruit, a hot dog, and baked beans in a stove, and you can make your own mini edible version.

#33- Veggie Dip

This is the only dip that can go with ANY food. From chips to apples, this dip was made for all foods. By mixing milk, mushrooms, and tomato soup, this dip takes only a few minutes in the blender for an all-night or day dip!

#34- Sappirake Scones

Hear ye, hear ye, all subjects of Webkinz World! What's better than living in a castle? Eating a castle! Now you can with three ingredients: blueberry cheesecake, corn flake cereal, and a coconut in a stove.

#35- Quendidot Buzzitree

This recipe is anything but swampy! It's made with the yummiest of ingredients: honey, pink lemonade, and a salad in a blender.

#36- Fried Foofaraw

It's a tornado, RUN! No, wait; it's just a Fried Foofaraw, a swirly mixture of french fries, lemon meringue pie, and carrot cake in a stove.

#37- Punchy Nutkins

Everyone loves fruit snacks, but they all come in the same flavors: strawberry, raspberry, and blueberry. Have you ever had Punchy Nutkins: a pumpkin, fruit punch, and peanuts in a stove? It's a new great food sensation! It comes in a pouch, so feel free to carry (and eat) it anywhere; even bring it to lunch at school. If you can't wait that long, feel free to eat it on the bus.

#38- Blucocrunch Bread

At dinner, you may occasionally want to have a loaf of bread to slice and enjoy. This bread will usually be plain, honey whole wheat or sourdough. For dessert, you have the usual: cookies, cake, pie, cheesecake, or cupcakes. Not anymore! How about bread for dessert? It's made with a chocolate bar, blueberry cheesecake, and potato chips in a stove. Simple to make, but fun to break!

#39- Scary Berry Crunch

Hmmm... what to bring to the Halloween party? You could make cookies. What about Scary Berry Crunch? It's a unique dish for anytime and anywhere that will have people coming back for seconds. It's very simple too; just combine potato chips, a pumpkin, and strawberries in a stove!

#40- Stikagoo Cake

Bubblegum is sticky, and so is toffee! But, what is the stickiest recipe in the world? Stikagoo Cake! Made with toffee, cake, and a chocolate milkshake in a stove, this cake will make you want more, and a napkin.

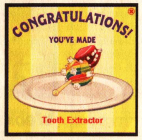
#41- Trippple Hot Chocolate

With the exception of homework, triple anything is great! That's why your Webkinz will absolutely LOVE this Trippple Hot Chocolate. It's made with the three best chocolate foods: chocolate bar, hot chocolate and chocolate milk in a blender. This will have you saying, "I want triple the serving!"

#42- Tooth Extractor

There are many ways to pull out a tooth: the old toaster trick, the door handle operation, and so forth. What is simple to make, and painless to take? A Tooth Extractor of course! Simply put a pumpkin pop, licorice bats, and a phantom pop in a stove, and take a bite for a painless way to remove any loose teeth. (The phantom pop was an item given out in the Halloween 2006 gift bag. It has not returned since, so it is very rare.)



#43- Squirrelly Brittle

Squirrels aren't the only ones who get to enjoy this squirrelly treat. Your Webkinz will too! Just put peanuts, sunflower seeds, and toffee in a stove and enjoy the natural brittle taste.

#44- Trickle Treacle

Trick or treat, give me something good to eat! You will usually get candy, but if you go to the right house, you might get Trickle Treacle. It's a yummy drink made with cola, a pumpkin, and pickles in a blender. It will have you coming back to that house for more!

#45- Banattle Dome

The most exciting events are held in the Banattle Dome. Your Webkinz can even eat an exact replica of the dome as well. Just put ramen noodles, a banana, and shrimp in a stove and serve it for any meal!

©JANZ

#46- Yogurt Twist Smoothie

Yogurt is delicious, and it's a favorite among all types of Webkinz. Now with the Yogurt Twist Smoothie, you can put a twist on yogurt! A banana, strawberry yogurt, and kiwi fruit are the ingredients, and you blend them all in a blender from the W Shop.

#47- Fizzletwist Pop

There are all kinds of pop, but have you ever had Fizzletwist Pop before? Produced by Webkinz World Inc., this pop will be the best you have ever had! The secret recipe is cola, cream soda, and licorice in a stove.

#48- Icy Frosty

There are many fancy recipes out there, so it's hard to find a simple drink to make on a hot summer day. Well, how about an Icy Frosty? It's an ice cream cone, bottled water, and watermelon in a blender for a delicious frosted drink.

#49- Miellabeelado

Voted the spiciest beverage in Webkinz World, it's no wonder that everyone can only handle one sip. This item is made with a chocolate milkshake, honey, and tacos in a blender. Be careful not to drink too much!

#50- Fancy Schmancy Waffles

Plain waffles can get a bit boring at times. However, the next time you want waffles for breakfast, how about making Fancy Schmancy Waffles? They're made with an ice cream cone, strawberries, and waffles in a sandwich maker. This can also be a deli-

A Webkinz Poem

BY KYLE, AGE 9, WINDSOR, ONTARIO

My Webkinz are so great,
Although I only have eight.
My favorite of all is my turtle named Franklin,
He really is cool and friendly enough to win.
I can play with my animals online,
Just to pass the time.
The adventure never ends,
As I make many virtual friends.
My favourite game is the Wishing Well,
I play it every day on my Dell.
And when the time is right,
I wish my Webkinz goodnight.
Webkinz is very fun,
It is suitable for everyone!

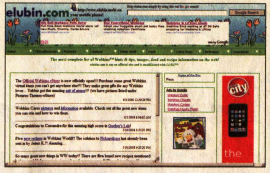
Elubin.com Covers Webkinz

A great site for Webkinz fans

BY DOUG KALE



I recently chatted with the webmaster of Elubin.com, Eric Lubin. Here's what he had to say about the Webkinz section of his website.

When and why did you create your site on Webkinz?

I created the site around November, 2006 for my kids. They got their first Webkinz as birthday presents and we were all fascinated by the recipes. So we built a small website to keep track of foods and recipes. Originally anyone on the Internet could come to the site and add recipes. That site quickly grew through traffic on various search engines and we did a major overhaul of the site around June, 2007 and added much more than food and recipes. Finally around January, 2008 the new look and menus were added.

What are the top areas of your site?

The most popular areas of the site (and the ones that distinguish us from other Webkinz fan sites) are the Did You Know section, the Pictures sections, the check lists, the birthday pages, and the pet names. The 'Did You Know' section is a collection of interesting facts about Webkinz that our users find, such as virtual items in previews that you can't really get, funny things your pet can do by accident, or helpful hints like what shows on wallpaper and flooring when you use the same ones in different size rooms.

Can you tell us some interesting facts about the site that most people might not know about?

My kids really do go through all the submissions for Room of the Week and pick their favorites! We don't really have every food in the pantry (wish we did). There are over 150,000 pet birthdays listed.

How many Webkinz do you have in your collection?

Everyone in the family (including my 4-year-old) has their own Webkinz account. Our first pet ever was my son's St. Bernard named Snuggles and my first pet was, of course, my pet Panda, Yabbie!

Anything else you'd like to share with our readers about elubin.com?

We are not an official site and are not affiliated with Ganz. We can't correct missing items or lost items; users must contact Ganz directly. Finally I would like to offer a very special thank you to some community members who help me manage the birthday list and Curio Shop rare item list. I couldn't do it without them!

Thanks Eric!

Webkinz I'd Like to See

SENT IN BY KRISTINA S., AGE 10, FROM HONOLULU, HI

I have been brain-storming ideas for a very long period of time and I thought these were some good ideas for Webkinz.

My animal ideas are: a bald eagle, cottontail rabbit, Jack Russell terrier, Welsh Corgi, Grizzly Bear, Golden Tabby, Cockatoo Bird, White Horse, and Sea Otter.

Virtual Fun

BY ALYSE Z., VIA E-MAIL

Webkinz, Webkinz, all day and night,
Always playin' on the site!
Shining Stars, same thing too,
Always something new to do!
In the morning, and before bed,
Yep, all the time, that's what I said!
Now this poem is done,
Let's go have lots of virtual pet fun!

WEBKINZ & LIL'KINZ PRICE GUIDE & CHECKLIST

HOW TO USE THIS PRICE GUIDE

WHAT'S LISTED
All Webkinz products listed in the price guide are licensed by Ganz and carry a secondary market value.

WHAT THE COLUMNS MEAN
The LO and HI columns reflect current retail selling ranges. The HI column on the right generally represents the full retail selling price. The LO column on the left generally represents the lowest price one would expect to find with extensive shopping.

WHAT THE ARROWS MEAN
Up arrows denote prices that went up since the last issue. Down arrows denote prices that went down since the last issue. Arrows don't mean an item "going up" or "going down."

GRADING AND VALUES
All items in this Price Guide are based on NRMint to Mint condition. Damaged items are generally sold for 25 to 75 percent of Mint value. All values in this guide are for Webkinz with unused tags and codes.

1ST EDITIONS
Most "1st" on Either Webkinz are missing the "W" on their paw. These generally sell for 20% to 50% more than later editions.

Webkinz COLLECTOR'S CORNER

Interviewing Webkinz fans from around the country

BY DOUG KALE

Hi everyone! For this edition of Webkinz Collector's Corner I interviewed Marie F. from Anderson, South Carolina.

She has 74 Webkinz in her collection, however not all of them are included in her picture. Marie's cat, Boots, also decided to join the picture taking. Here's what Marie had to say about Webkinz and other fun stuff.

How many Webkinz do you have in your collection?

I have 74, but not all of them are in my picture.

How did you hear about Webkinz?

A friend from school told me about it.

What was the first Webkinz you ever got?

I got two Webkinz the first day I started collecting. They were the Gold and White Cat and the Tree Frog.

How often do you play on the Webkinz site?

Every couple of hours, or whenever I can get to my computer!

What's your favorite thing to do on the Webkinz site?

I love to read the paper, answer some polls and I love to buy lots of stuff from the W Shop!

What's your favorite game on the site?

Webkinz Super Models.

Besides Webkinz, what are some of the other things that you like to do?

I LOVE to play tennis, swim on the Makos Swim Team, ride horses, play the piano, play with my cat, and play with good ol' friends!

What's your favorite food?

Shepherd's Pie.

What's your favorite music group or singer?

I LOVE Taylor Swift!

What's your favorite TV show?

Goosebumps.

Besides Webkinz.com, what's your next favorite website?

I love to shop on eBay and play on myepets.com.

Is there anything that you would like to tell other kids about Webkinz or where to find them?

Yes. Webkinz is a safe website and Ganz is working harder to make it safer and more fun! Webkinz can be found at your local gift shop. If you can't find any near you, go to webkinz.com and click on the store locator. Thanks!

Thanks Marie!

WEBKINZ FANS ARE EVERYWHERE!

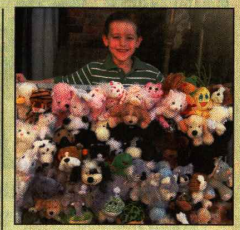
ALLIE

This is Allie, age 8, from Roseville, California. Her favorite Webkinz pet is her Lil'Kinz Tree Frog and her favorite game is Wacky Zingoz Extreme. Allie had this to say about Webkinz: "I have 34 Webkinz. I got my first Webkinz, a Panda, for my eighth birthday from my older sister. My favorite thing to do on Webkinz is talk to my friends at the Clubhouse. I also read Plushie Pals because it has my two favorite websites in it: Webkinz and Club Penguin."

SHAYLIN

Here's Shaylin, age 8, from Elkford, BC, Canada. She currently has 21 Webkinz in her collection and says that number is growing fast! She heard about Webkinz from her step sister Krysten. Shaylin's favorite Webkinz is her newest one, the Collie.



HAYDEN

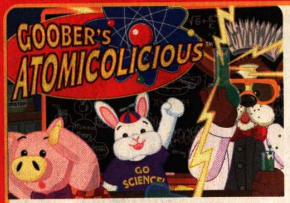
Can you tell that Hayden is very happy about his Webkinz collection? This six year old from Plano, Texas, has a grand total of 93 Webkinz pets. His favorite is the St. Bernard. It also looks like Hayden found a great way to display and store his collection too.

LAUREN AND NATALIE

This is Lauren (age 9) and Natalie G. (age 8). Here's what they had to say. "We are the proud owners of 53 Webkinz! We don't have a certain favorite because we love them all! We play on Webkinz about two hours a day. We can't get enough!" Lauren's sister got her first Webkinz before most people had heard of them. It was the Basset Hound, which is now retired.

If you have a large Webkinz collection, I'd like to hear from you!

READERS: Send me your name, age, city, how many Webkinz you own and a picture of you with your collection. Also, mention which one is your favorite! You can e-mail your photo and info to me at plushiepals@beckett.com or send your picture to: Beckett Plushie Pals, Attn: Doug Kale, 4635 McEwen Rd., Dallas, TX 75244.



Goober's at it again with a new experiment on the go. This time, he needs all the help he can get!

HOW TO PLAY

Take turns with your partner to try and make lines of three or more atoms. Once you make a line, it will fill up one of your four test tubes. Larger lines give you more points and an extra turn. The first to fill all four test tubes will be the winner. Both players will receive KinzCash at the end.

TECHNIQUE

When you start the game, immediately look for possible lines of four atoms, even if it isn't your turn; you should always be prepared for the next move. If you cannot find a set of one, try and make combinations of atoms near the bottom of the screen. This way, more atoms will fall down from the top of the screen. If they make a combination of three while falling down, you get to keep the KinzCash and it fills up the test tube more. If you make a combination near the top of the screen, less atoms fall down, making it harder for more combinations to fall down. It is possible to win the game within the first turn because of this.

As you can see, I have filled up my test tubes about even. This is always a good move to make, just in case a color becomes scarce on the board and you don't have any of it. From here, I can now choose one color and fill it up to the top. If I continue to try and keep them even, it will be difficult for me to fill up any of the tubes, resulting in me losing the game. In another game I played, my opponent was too busy keeping all her test tubes even and she lost the game.

Near the end of the game, focus only on the colors you do not have filled to the top yet. They should not be at zero because you kept them all at an even number in the beginning. If you do see a line of four atoms, click on it. You will receive more KinzCash, and it will prevent your opponent from clicking on it.

TIPS & TRICKS

TIP #1 Low on KinzCash? You will also see KinzCash coins on the board. If you make a line of three coins, you will receive three KinzCash! The only problem with this is, it does not fill up your test tubes. I would recommend using this technique if you have most of your test tubes filled (and your opponent does not) or if you have no other moves on the board. Don't worry though; you still receive KinzCash for every combo of atoms you make.

TIP #2 If your opponent is going to win, see if you can make a line of eye-droppers. By making a line of these, you will lower your opponent's test tubes.

TIP #3 Always look for lines of four atoms. You can also look for five and six lines of atoms, but these are very rare. These will fill up your colored test tubes a lot and give you an extra turn!

TIP #4 When choosing which line of atoms to click, try doing a color that you do not have a lot of. This way, you will keep them all even.

TIP #5 If you have a choice between a line of four red atoms (and you have already filled your test tube) or a line of three blue atoms (and you have only filled the blue tube a little), definitely choose the line of four atoms. This will give you an extra turn, and might open up a few more choices for you; if not, you can still choose that line of three atoms.

YE OLDE IGLOO CONTEST
It's time for penguins with a passion for decorating to jostle and juggle their way to victory in Ye Olde Decorating Igloo contest!
Contest begins on May 23.
Check out the new furniture catalog for great medieval themed furniture.
Judges will be looking for medieval decor themes.
Be creative! It's not just the igloo with this month's furniture that wins. Style, finesse and flare matter!
Judging takes place May 25 - 26. Winners announced on May 29 will receive 10,000 coins each!
Good luck to all decorators. Go forth, and decorate yonder igloo!

What's New

Rockhopper's ship, the Migrator, departed a few weeks ago from Club Penguin. But before he left, he opened two new rooms on his ship. One is the Crows Nest on the mast. It has a cannon and if you mouse over it you'll fire a cannonball. The other room is Rockhopper's crew's quarters, a room that has been locked since the cargo hold of the ship was opened a few months ago. The room has a multi-player game, which you'll find in one of the sandboxes in the room.

There was some fun stuff to do at Club Penguin recently. There was the Igloo contest where you designed your igloo and had the judges take a look at it. If you won, your penguin would appear in the newspaper. The first 10 winners got 25,000 coins and the second 10 winners got 10,000 coins. There was also a book writing contest (winners were announced on May 29th), and if you won, your book got put in the bookroom above the coffee shop.

The medieval party also just wrapped up and it had lots of decorations and two free items. One was a wizard hat (it was originally given out at the 2006 Halloween party at the top of the lighthouse). Along with the party came clothes, an igloo upgrade catalog (the new igloo was a pink version of the ice castle), a furniture catalog and a new Puffle catalog.

At Large

Since January of 2008, there's been a mission to capture two suspects. Here are their names and descriptions, which can also be found inside the Club Penguin Agency HQ or in the spy manual:

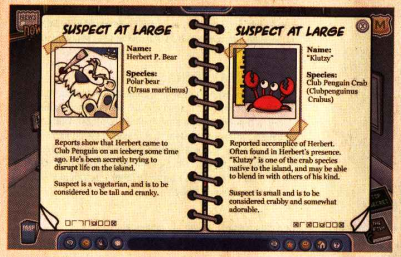
Name: Herbert P. Bear
Species: Polar bear

The report shows that Herbert came to Club Penguin on an iceberg some time ago. He's been secretly trying to disrupt life on the island.

Suspect is a vegetarian, and is to be considered tall and cranky.
— Penguin Secret Agency description, AKA P.S.A.

This is what I saw after playing the most recent missions.

Herbert appears to have been a polar bear who did not like the cold weather of the North Pole, so he decided to head south towards warmer weather. He told me his story through drawings while I was kept in a jail cell inside a cave. In one drawing, it actually shows his iceberg drifting by a group of sunny islands with palm trees in the background. In the mission you play from your penguin's point of view, so you only see the speech bubbles and other penguins and animals. His iceberg then collapsed and he couldn't swim, but Klutzy his crab friend rescued him.



SUSPECT AT LARGE
Name: Herbert P. Bear
Species: Polar bear (Ursus maritimus)
Reports show that Herbert came to Club Penguin on an iceberg some time ago. He's been secretly trying to disrupt life on the island.
Suspect is a vegetarian, and is to be considered to be tall and cranky.
SUSPECT AT LARGE
Name: "Klutzy"
Species: Club Penguin Crab (Clubpenguinus Crabus)
Reported accomplice of Herbert. Often found in Herbert's presence. "Klutzy" is one of the crab species native to the island, and may be able to blend in with others of his kind.
Suspect is small and is to be considered crabby and somewhat adorable.

Once safe, Herbert realized he had several problems. The first was that the place he was in was even colder than where he last lived! The other was that the penguins were disturbing him, so he decided to chop down the ski lodge, but his plan failed. He then tried to damage the clock tower and succeeded, but then later it was fixed.

Coming Soon!

For the past few months, Club Penguin has been working on a project called Club Penguin Improvement Project, or CPIP. At first they did a server test, where every single penguin was a green puffle. Then they added new servers. They're also about to add new useful features, like saving postcards you receive from people and new inventory organizing for your penguin! The new improvements are probably going to come out very soon. For more information on this go to www.clubpenguin/cpip.com.

YOUR GUIDE TO TY GIRLZ ONLINE

FROM A FAN'S POINT OF VIEW

BY KATHERINE ARCHIBALD

HI! MY NAME IS KATHERINE. I am 10 years old and I love playing on Ty Girlz. I have three Ty Girlz: Sizzlin Sue, Cute Candy, and Lovely Lola. If you're interested in Ty Girlz, I've put together some tips to help you on the site (www.Tygirlz.com).

CHOOSING YOUR GIRL

The setup of the site and the plush doll is similar to Webkinz, but with girls. You can find the Ty Girlz at a variety of stores (I get mine at a store called Chapters). These dolls all have a cutting-edge style that makes it hard to choose the right one. Here are two tricks for picking one: 1) select one if it's dressed in your favorite color, or 2) think to yourself and say, "If I were to buy any of these outfits in a store, which one would I buy?"

ENTERING THE WORLD

Remember how I said earlier that this is just like Webkinz? Well, this part totally relates! On your Girlz' wrist (normally attached to a bracelet), there is a heart that looks like the Ty plush tag. However, this one is glittery and pink (the shade of pink varies depending on how old it is), and contains a secret code to activate your Girlz. So, cut off the swing tag and open it up. You should see a gray blotch to scratch off. Find a coin and scratch it off. A secret code should be under that. Next, go to www.tygirlz.com and enter the code and information needed. Also, make up your own user-name and password. HINT: I always write my information for online clubs on a Post-it note and stick it under the keyboard.

CUSTOMIZING YOUR GIRL

Once you're on, you'll be able to play all day. You get 1,500 Ty dollars to spend on food and clothes and makeovers for your Girl. You can also chat around the world, update your home-page, play games and activities in the arcade, decorate your room, and text message and update your Ty Phone, all for FREE! So, as you see, there are a zillion neat features on Ty Girlz that will keep you busy.

OTHER NEAT STUFF

Ty Girlz is a very popular toy and could become as hot as Webkinz someday. They have great games in the arcade such as Doors for Dollars where you can earn virtual cash very quickly. Other games that can earn you money quickly are: What's In the Bag?, Girlz Music Mixer, Girlz Bounce, Balloon Pop!, Skee Ball, Mosquito Mayhem and many more!

THE TY GIRLZ WORLD PREVIEW

If you're unsure if you will like the Ty Girlz site or want more information, you can try their preview site for free. Go online at www.tygirlz.com and click on "Try this FREE Secret Code!" Next a window will pop up and say: "What is the secret code?" You can type this secret code into the box for the preview: 1234.

I hope my quick Ty Girlz guide helped you a lot. Have fun playing!

Beanie Babies 2.0

Frequently asked questions

BY JENNIFER WOOD

CAN YOU EXPLORE NEW PLACES IN BEANIE LAND?

You can use the following to explore:

a) the Shortcuts top right of screen
b) the Map bottom right of screen
c) mouse over things to discover links to various places

CAN YOU GO SHOPPING IN 2.0 LAND?

It says the General Store is coming soon.

HOW DO I GET A WATERING CAN?

Mayor Bean gives it to you after you fill all of your Meters.

MY HIGH SCORES ARE NOT SHOWING UP. IS THAT A COMMON PROBLEM?

CustomerService@ty.com is very helpful if you need to report any glitches.

I CLICKED ON MAYOR BEAN FOR HELP BUT HE DOES NOT SAY ANYTHING!

Clicking on Mayor Bean, at the bottom center of the screen, changes the light on him from GREEN to RED and back again. To have text bubbles pop up as you mouse over stuff in Beanie Land, keep the Mayor's light on GREEN.

WHERE DO I REGISTER ADDITIONAL 2.0s TO BUILD MY FAMILY METER?

Go to Ty.com and click on the BB2.0 section to enter. Be sure to select RETURNING USER and log in with your registered account to have all of your 2.0s registered as one Family.

HOW DO I ADD SOMEONE AS A FRIEND IN A CHAT AREA?

Click on the person and the Add Friend icon will pop up. Click on it to add the person. Adding Friends fills your Friend Meter.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND FOOD BEANS?

Periodically you can find Food Beans in various Beanie Lands. Sometimes the Beans may be "hiding" behind the House Beanies, but if you walk (use arrow keys) up to the House Beanies, you can still pick up the Bean. You will see your 2.0 react as if they just picked the Bean up. The Beans go into your Backpack after you walk into them. You can also win Food Beans from playing games.

WHAT CAN MY 2.0 EAT IN BEANIE LAND? ALSO, WHAT DOES IT MEAN WHEN YOUR BEANIE LOOKS KIND OF SICK AND THE FOOD METER'S LOW?

You can eat the red Food Beans and your 2.0 will get a bubble over their head, showing you what they are "eating."

You don't feed the Beans to the 2.0s directly from the ground. First walk up to the Beans on the ground, and then they'll "magically" go into your backpack as you walk into them. Then, to feed your 2.0, click on the Backpack icon at the bottom of the screen. This opens the pack. Then, "grab" a red Bean from inside your Backpack by clicking on it until it sticks to your cursor arrow. There should be a red Bean on the first "page" of your Backpack, with a number under it, indicating how many Beans you have accumulated in your pack. Then the pack should automatically close as you take the Bean to your 2.0 and feed them by clicking on them with the Bean.

When your 2.0s look sick or tired and have a low Hunger Meter, that means they need to be fed. Feed them until your Hunger Meter goes back to 100% full and they should return to normal.

I DIDN'T KNOW YOU COULD WIN FOOD BEANS. SO THAT'S HOW YOU GET A BUNCH? WHEN DO YOU BEGIN WINNING FOOD BEANS AS PRIZES FOR PLAYING GAMES?

I'm not fully sure. I wonder if there's a certain point where the game feels you've won enough prizes and switches to Beans? I also wonder if there's a finite amount of varieties of various prizes.

I started winning Food Beans after I had won tons of other stuff. It's been speculated about why that happens, but a real consensus has not been reached. It was first thought prizes were based on performance in games, but that has not always held true. I also usually find several Beans per day in each area. In fact, I make a point to visit all main Beanie Land areas each time I log on, just so I can gather the Beans.

DOES A FULL TUMMY MAKE THEM FASTER OR GIVE THEM ABILITY THE TO SCORE HIGHER IN THE GAMES?

The only thing I've noticed is that right after you feed them, if there are Beans on the ground and you pick them up (to have them go in your pack), the 2.0 that picked up the Bean after just being fed will react in a spunky way. For example, Quackly will do a flip and McLucky clicks his heels together. Each 2.0 reacts in its own unique, spunky way. You have to feed them right before you pick the Beans up from the ground though or you won't see these special moves.

WHAT DID I DO TO GET MORE BEANSTALK HOUSE ROOMS?

Each 2.0 you register gets two rooms that are added to your Beanstalk, so the number of rooms and which rooms you see are directly related to which BB2.0s you have registered. Each suite of rooms belongs to a specific 2.0. The Beanstalk rooms give us glimpses at each 2.0s "personality."

The order in which you register the BB2.0s determines where on the Beanstalk they are located (the earlier they're registered, the lower their rooms are on the Beanstalk), so each Beanstalk will look differently.

WHAT CAN YOU DO IN THE BEANSTALK HOUSE?

The Beanstalk contains all your 2.0's rooms. It's a cute place to hang out and listen to what the House Beanies gossip about. Some rooms have things that jump to life as you mouse over them and others have things you can click to activate animations.

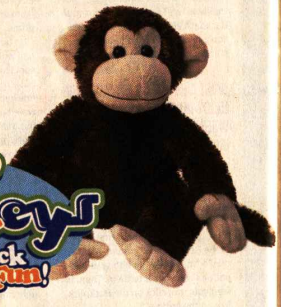
HOW CAN I MAKE MY 2.0 GO TO SLEEP?

If you do not move your 2.0 for a while and you let it just stay in one place (without clicking on it), if you're talking in a chat area, or if you're using the arrow keys, your 2.0 will automatically fall asleep. They look mighty cute while snoozing too!

Kookeys & Tracksters

They're set to shock the virtual world!

By Reed D. Pheuture



For months, there have been only murmurs. The rumors started in web forums and obscure virtual world internet blogs, but soon spread to pockets of children and gamers across the nation. Bits and pieces of information emerged—little details about an entirely new technology, about never-before seen features and an entirely new type of virtual World.

After months of speculation, what is it that's causing so much excitement and so much anticipation?

Through exclusive contacts within 10VOX Entertainment, Beckett Media LP and Plushie Pals magazine is proud to bring you the world premiere of two of the newest, most exciting virtual worlds—KooKeys and Tracksters!!!

KooKeys: The Next Generation

Coming August 1st, 2008

Just six months after the highly successful Beta launch of the KooKeys virtual world, 10VOX insiders have revealed that an entirely new virtual world is in the works. "We can't even begin to express how excited we are about this completely new version of KooKeys—our players spoke, and we listened. Now, we're merging cutting-edge virtual technology with an amazing new virtual world—this will simply blow away anything else out there," says Kevin Kolinski, a head virtual worlds architect for 10VOX Entertainment. "We've really spent the time to listen to our players and hear what they want to see in a virtual experience." says Kevin. "And this ground-up redesign of KooKeys is exactly that—a fresh, completely new experience unlike anything else out there."

With a completely redesigned virtual world, many die-hard fans are asking: what's going to be different? Dean Cheshire, a senior KooKeys Developer, helps explain the answer. "This is a totally new experience. We took everyone's favorite things in KooLand and expanded on them: more games, more fun, and unbelievable chat options, but the biggest difference is interactivity."

"We're bringing a true 2.5D environment to KooKeys; now, you can walk down Main Street, walk through your neighborhood, and stop and have a chat with your friends; we have a lot of really interesting surprises too."

But the shocking news for KooKeys fans isn't limited to the virtual realm. By early Fall '08, expect a whole new set of friendly faces to join the popular KooKeys lineup. In addition to an assortment of new KooKeys friends, there will also be limited-edition collections of Halloween and holiday-themed KooKeys as well. Similarly, familiar and popular KooKeys characters will be retired from the KooKeys lineup, never to be reintroduced. "Simply put, we have some very special characters in the current KooKeys lineup—characters that may have some very special advantages in the new KooKeys site," says Darrell Bagby, a senior 10VOX V.P.

"In addition, we've worked with our very best plush designers, and we've come up with some amazing new characters" says Mr. Bagby. "The greatest part is that we've had a chance to spend time and really put our finger on what children want—our new friends in the KooKeys lineup will prove that."

Tracksters: Trick, Tune, Triumph!

Do you have what it takes to be the Supreme Race Champion?

TRACKSTERS: A World Premiere Coming October 1st, 2008

On October 1st, 2008, the world's most anticipated product launch of 2008—Tracksters—will be available at retailers across the nation. Tracksters is poised to become the ultimate racing experience for car lovers across the world. "The Tracksters line is truly unbelievable. The excitement this product is generating in the marketplace is truly beyond anything we could have expected," says Alex Reece, a senior 10VOX V.P. "We've achieved the highest levels of quality with Tracksters. The cars and our state-of-the-art virtual world are truly beyond compare." Initially released as a collection of 24 premium, collectible die-cast cars and premium trading cards, Tracksters promises a revolutionary new vision for virtual worlds.

EXCLUSIVE INFORMATION

10VOX SHOCKS the Virtual Community!!!

For months there have been whispers. First it was children, endlessly surfing blogs and forums for the latest developments in the virtual world. Virtual world insiders across the nation spoke of an entirely new type of product that will start something new and different. Rumors swirled of new technologies, new games, and a completely new world, but as interest continued to bloom, details remained few. Soon, industry insiders began to pay attention—was there really something to this new rumor? Could there really be a revolutionary rebirth of the popular KooKeys just around the corner?

Until now, officials from 10VOX Entertainment have been silent about what lays in store for the KooKeys line. Attempts to learn more information about KooKeys from key 10VOX insiders have been met with little more than sly smiles and "we'll see" responses. What could possibly be in store for KooKeys that could generate this kind of excitement?

NEW

NEOPETS PRODUCTS

from Jakks Pacific

Retailers will now have a nice variety of new Neopet toys

By Doug Kale

Beginning July, 2008, new JAKKS Neopets products will be arriving on store shelves at mass retailers nationwide.

Collecting Plush

Every Neopets plush toy will have a unique design that includes a virtual prize code. These codes can be entered online to link the plush with a virtual token representation of the same plush that was purchased in-store. The initial series contains both Limited Edition and Retired versions that will be fun to collect. The plushies are suitable for ages six and up and have a suggested retail price of $7.99.

A Questing Experience

Neopets recently announced Key Quest, a multi-player online gaming and collecting experience, which will link JAKKS' product line into the expansive Neopian world. With Key Quest, the virtual tokens representing purchased plush toys become playable game pieces, and all purchased Neopets products are displayable in a special Key Quest Collector's Case.

New Figures

For the 2008 holiday season, JAKKS is planning to introduce a full roll-out of the only authentic Neopets products, including mini figures and playsets, in addition to the plush line-up. Kids can collect and display their favorite Neopian characters and accessories with the Neopets 2" 3-Pack Vinyl Figures featuring two Neopet figures, one Petpet figure and three accessories. These toys are recommended for ages six and up with a suggested retail price of $9.99.

- ☆ eight accessories

These toys are recommended for ages six and up with a suggested retail price of $14.99.

NEOPETS' 999TH GAME — DESTRUCT-O-MATCH III!

TAKING A LOOK AT THE HISTORY OF BLOULDER BREAKING

By Rebecca Bundy

Destruct-o-Match is one of the most famous Neopets games, and the third installment to this boulder-breaking strategy game is definitely pumping fun up to a whole new level. But before we look at its newest version, let's take a look back at the first two versions and remember the origins that have made this game a blast to play.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH

The first game was a big hit from the beginning. Based on the Collapse games, the basic object is to destroy boulders of similar colors until there are none left. The catch is that you can only destroy a boulder if it's touching at least one other boulder of the same color. The original version had no special features and unlike later versions, which give you a new boulder color after several rounds, you would get a new boulder color every round. To pass a round, you must meet or beat a certain score for each round.

Playing the game now, the sound played whenever you break boulders is extremely annoying, but I like the fact that a single game takes a lot less time due to the individual rounds being a lot more intense.

When the first game was retired in favor of the newer version, a lot of people were extremely upset. They preferred the simplicity of DoM and the fact that a single game didn't take nearly as much time as one in the newer version. Originally, the only way to play DoM was by typing in "boohooiwanttheoldgameback" at the "select a game mode" screen in DoM II. It currently resides in the Game Graveyard.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH II

The sequel to DoM introduces many new variables to the standard "blow up boulders" formula, including different play modes and special boulders.

Instead of just blowing up boulders at your own speed, which became the classic or standard mode, the Zen and Extreme modes are introduced. In the Zen mode, the game never truly ends and you can play it for days on end, but you do not get any NP for your progress. Extreme mode is the most like the Collapse games; every few seconds, a new row of boulders is added to the bottom, which slowly pushes the boulders on the screen upwards towards the top. If even a single boulder touches the top of the screen, it's game over. Personally, I rarely played the Extreme mode because I always loved the fact that DoM was one of the few Neopets games that I could walk away from without the game penalizing me. This meant that if something came up that I had to take care of, I would never lose my progress!

Along with several modes come special boulders. These boulders, when destroyed, will activate special features that generally help you, but you have to be careful and plan out when you want to use each.

TIMER: This boulder will turn into an Indestructible boulder after 15 seconds. If it's touching any boulders of the same color, they'll be turned as well. Destroy this one first!

EXPLODE: Destroys the eight boulders surrounding it when clicked and is the only way to destroy an Indestructible boulder. It's best to save this one until the end of the round.

FILL: Adds a new row of random blocks to the top. This can help you in later levels when you need extra points, but can deny you bonus points for clearing the board if you use it too late.

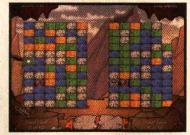
MULTIPLIER: The best boulder in the game. It will triple the points earned when it's destroyed. Obviously getting it to touch a large number of the same boulders will give you a huge amount of points.

OVERKILL: Destroys all blocks of its color, but denies you points you'd otherwise earn from destroying them. Use this while it's only touching a second block and only after you've cleared all of the blocks of the same color on the screen.

Though I (and many others) was a fan of the original, DoM II brought with it a huge variety of fun options that would eventually find a new home in DoM III. Sadly though, as of writing this, DoM II has not been moved to the Game Graveyard. Plus, those of you who haven't gotten the DoM II avatar yet (which you get after earning 2,500 points or more) may be out of luck.

DESTRUCT-O-MATCH III

Neopets' 999th game is DoM III, which, like DoM II, takes what made the previous version great and builds on it. The original modes and special boulders have returned, but with them come brand new options and strategies that will make DoM III as popular as the originals.



Double Trouble and Double Trouble Extreme modes join the game options, giving players now five different ways to play the game. Double Trouble is the classic mode, but with two smaller screens of boulders instead of one larger one. Interestingly enough, you can play only one side until you're unable to beat the level's score and then move onto the second until it finally defeats you. This also means that if you mess up and fall on one side, it isn't game over yet! The special blocks, however, only affect the side that they're used on. Double Trouble Extreme is just Extreme mode on the two smaller screens.

New special boulders mean that while the game's still the same, how you play it has completely changed. Plus, certain special block effects will actually carry over into other rounds, so you can use them or save them for a rainy day!

MORPH: This boulder changes color randomly. It can be frustrating to wait for the right color to pop up, but if you're ever stuck with a block all on its own, this one can destroy it if it's touching.

WILDCARD: Unlike Morph, where you're waiting around for the right color, Wildcard can be used to break any color boulder that's touching it. While this card would be great to save until you're down to only a few boulders, it's extremely hard to save and generally gets gobbled up accidently because it's touching something you need to break.

SCAMANDER: Only available in the Extreme modes, this boulder keeps a new boulder from showing up below it when a new row is added. Scamander shows up a lot in the Extreme games, but I honestly didn't find it very useful since a single block not showing up could keep you from destroying other ones.

UNDO: One of two effects that carry over into new rounds. By clicking the paw print at the bottom (the left one), you can undo your last move. This is EXTREMELY useful for a bad break, but it sadly cannot be used after using any special boulder, which is generally when you will want to use it. It's still good for the occasional miss-click though.

SHUFFLE: Randomly shuffles all remaining boulders. This is my favorite of the new boulders and is especially useful when you're only a few points shy of the round's goal and a reshuffle may give you those last few breaks.

While Neopets has announced that their 1,000th game is going to be a special one, there's no reason that players won't be able to get the most out of their 999th. And though you may miss the original two games, with more modes to play through and more special boulders to work new strategies around, Destruct-o-Match III will definitely keep you entertained and rolling in NP.

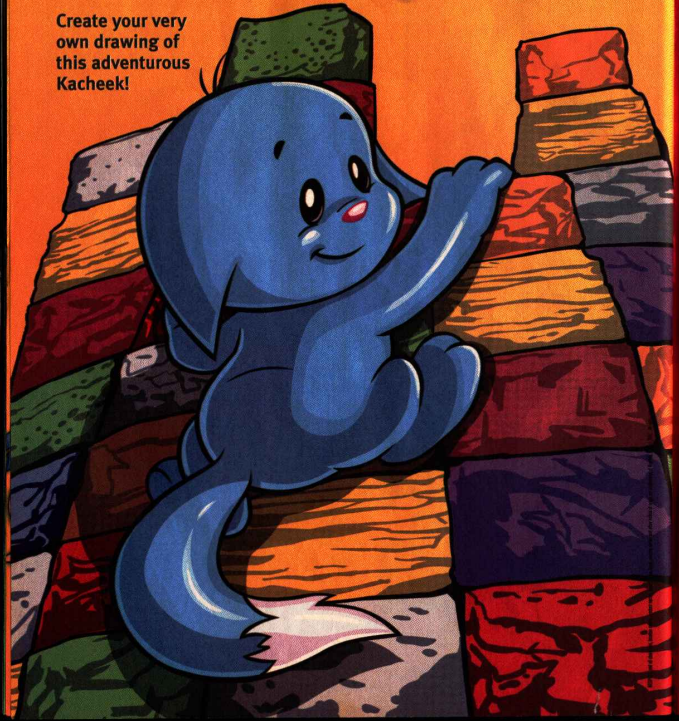
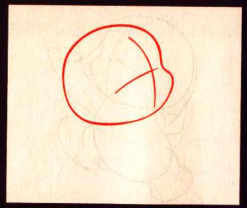
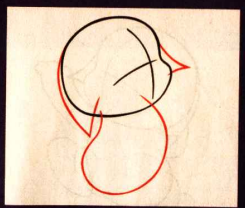
HOW TO DRAW
Chrillis
the Kacheek Traveler

Create your very own drawing of this adventurous Kacheek!

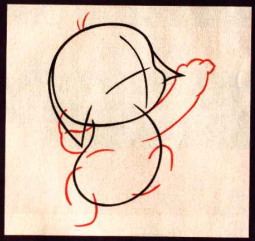




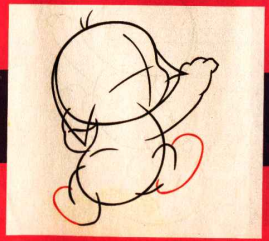
1 Start your drawing of Chrillis with a large, rounded shape for the Kacheek's head. Next, lightly sketch a pair of crossed lines on the head shape where Chrillis's face will be. This will help you when placing his facial features later on.



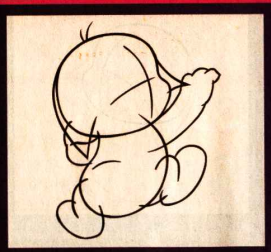
2 Next, give Chrillis a pair of downward-pointing Kacheek ears. Then, make a rounded teardrop-like shape for his body.



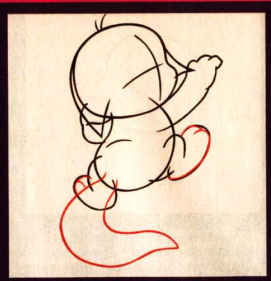
3 Since Chrillis is climbing a large rock wall, his arms will need to be raised and gripping the wall. To make his right arm, draw a pair of long curved lines, and then add a paw to the end of them. Since Chrillis is holding onto the wall, his fingers will be bent. For his left arm, make a curved line that connects his body to the side of his head, and then draw a wavy line inside the arm shape that you just formed for his shoulder. Next, it's time to start working on Chrillis's legs. On the bottom of his body shape, make four curved lines for the tops of Chrillis's legs, which are a bit bunched up to help him climb. Finally, add two little hairs to the top of the Kacheek's head.



4 Finish making Chrillis's legs by drawing a large curve at the bottom of each one to form his feet.



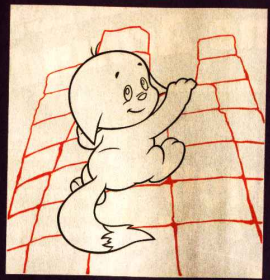
5 Your drawing should now look like this.



6 Give Chrillis's feet a bit more shape by dividing them into toes. Then, draw his long, bushy tail.

7 Erase any extra lines you might have on your drawing.

8 Using the pair of guide lines you made in the first step, draw Chrillis's face. Place his eyes on the horizontal guide line. Be sure to make a little circle in each of them for the sparkle in his eyes. Above his eyes, draw Chrillis's raised eyebrows. Finally, give him a cute Kacheek nose and a crooked little smile. When you've finished drawing his face, add some furry texture to his tail and include the marking at the very tip of it.



9 Erase all of your remaining extra lines. Then, draw the rough block wall that Chrillis is climbing. It should look a bit like the stones in Destruct-O-Match II.

10 Give your drawing some color using anything you'd like, from crayons and colored pencils to a computer program!

11 Since Chrillis is climbing up the pile of stones at sunset, your drawing should have lots of dramatic shading to give it plenty of depth. Don't forget to add a lot of texture to the rocks, too!

12 Add a few highlights to make your drawing really shine, and you're finished! What will the Kacheek in your drawing find on the other side of that wall?
